PART IV(B) LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Local Government Notifications

LOCAL GOVERNMENT SERVICE /LAW No. 16 OF 1974

REGULATIONS made by me, the Minister of Provincial Councils and Local Government under Section 23 of the Local Government Service Law, No. 16 of 1974 as amended by Act, No. 10 of 1985, is published herewith.

JANAKA BANDARA TENNEKOON,
Minister of Provincial Councils and Local Government.

Colombo.

20th October, 2005.

Regulations

1. These regulations may be cited as the Local Government Service Widowers and Orphans Pension Fund (Permissioin for optiion) Regulations.

2. These regulations shall apply to female members of Local Government Service who were holding a permanent and pensionable post prior to the date of coming into operation hereinafter referred to as “relevant date” of the Local Government Service Widowers and Orphans Pension Fund Regulations 1986, published in the Gazette Extraordinary No. 438/8 of 28th January, 1987.

3. Any female member of the service who were unable to give their option to become a contributor to the fund and to whom regulation 2 applies :

(a) may give her option to become a contributor to the fund after the publication of these regulations in the Gazette.

(b) the last date for giving option to become a contributor to the fund is 30th June, 2006.

4. (1) If any female member of the service to whom regulation 2 applies dies during the period between the relevant date and 30th June, 2006, she shall be deemed to have given her option to become a contributor and action shall be taken accordingly.

(2) From the day immediately after the death of a female member to whom Section 4(1) applies, her widower or her child or children of pensionable age shall be deemed to be a beneficiary or beneficiaries subject to regulation 5(3) and as long as the widower or child or children conforms to the provisions of Local Government Service Widowers and Orphans Pension Fund Regulations 1986.

5. (1) Every female member who gives her option in terms of regulation 3 shall pay all the arrears of contributions from the relevant date to the date of giving option together with the compound interest on those contributions to the fund in sixty instalments.

(2) In the case of retirement or death of a female member before the recovery of arrears of contributions referred to in regulation 5(1), together with compound interest on it, the amount due shall be deducted from her pension or gratuity. Where the pension or gratuity is not sufficient enough to deduct the arrears of contributions, such arrears shall be deducted from the benefits to be paid to the widower or child or children.

(3) All arrears of contributions due from a female member referred to in regulation 4(1) and compound interest on it from the relevant date which is deemed to be her last day of work shall be paid to the fund by her widower and/or child and/or children.

6. The compound interest on arrears of contributions referred to regulation 5 shall be calculated as specified in the First Schedule to these regulations. In accordance with the salary revisions done from time to time, the amount of contributions due from the female member shall be calculated in terms of Second Schedule hereto.

7. A sum equal to seventy five percent of the aggregate amount, consisting of arrears of contributions and compound interest on it due from every female member who has become a contributor to the fund in accordance with the provisions of these regulations in respect of period from the relevant date to 03rd September 1993, shall be paid by the Local Authority or Local Authorities in which she served during that period.

8. When any female member gives her option to become a member of the fund as per regulation 3, she should make contributions to the fund starting from the month succeeding the date of giving option.

9. Any member who was in service as at the prescribed date and who has given her option to join the fund may—

(a) resign from the membership of the fund on the day after the date of publication of these regulations.

(b) the last date for resigning from the membership of the fund shall be 30th June, 2006.

10. Any member who has given her option to resign from membership of the fund shall -

(a) stop making contributions to the fund from the month succeeding the date of resigning from the fund.

(b) a report relating to the contributions made upto the end of the month in which consent was given for resigning from the fund shall be sent by the relevant Local Authority to the Director of Pensions.

11. (1) The Director of Pensions shall refund all contributions made by any member who has opted to resign from membership of the fund.

(2) All contributions made by any Local Authority or Local Authorities in respect of any member shall be refunded by the Director of Pensions to such Local Authority or Local Authorities.

12. The contributions which are to be refunded as per regulation 11 shall be computed in the manner specified in regulation 21 (2) of the Local Government Service Widowers and Orphans Pension Regulations of 1986.

13. The regulation 14 (2) of the Local Government Service Widowers and Orphans Pension Fund Regulations 1986, is hereby repealed.

14. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires ;

“Fund” means, Local Government Service Widowers and Orphans Pension Fund of 1986.

“Member of the Service” means a member of the Local Government Service established under local Government Service Act, No. 16 of 1974.

FIRST SCHEDULE

Example for recovery of arrears of contributions and compound interest :- Arrears of contributions of widowers and orphans pension and compound interest due from the female officer who has given option on 15.04.2006 to deduct such contributions from 01.01.1983 to 30.06.2006. (This example has been prepared to show the manner in which the contributions were recovered from 01.08.1983 onwards from a female officer who was promoted to G.C.S. Segment “A” on 01.05.1983 and placed on the initial step of the salary scale relevant to that post). Her/His annual increment date falls on 01st of May. In consequence of the salary conversion effected on 01.01.1986, her increment date has been changed to 01st of January. In order to compute the compound interest and the amount due in respect of contributions due for each year of the years lapsed, the amount given in column eleven below in respect of years lapsed is a constant amount.
