SRI LANKA SOCIAL SECURITY BOARD ACT, No. 17 OF 1996

REGULATIONS made by the Minister of Social Services and Social Welfare under Section 31 of the Sri Lanka Social Security Board Act, No. 17 of 1996.

A. P. JAGATH PUSHPAKUMARA,
Acting Minister of Social Services and Social Welfare.

Colombo,
22nd September, 2006.

Regulations

1. These regulations may be cited as the Pensions and Social Security Scheme Regulations, 2006.

2. The Pension and Social Security Benefit Scheme established by the Board under Section 4 of Act (hereinafter referred to as 'the Scheme') shall consist of the following different Systems :-

- (a) "Sahana" System, as specified in Schedule "A",
- (b) "Thilina" System, as specified in Schedule "C",
- (c) "Isuru" System, as specified in Schedule "D",
- (d) "Sarana" System, as specified in Schedule "E",
- (e) "Surakuma" System, as specified in Schedule "F", and
- (f) "Dhanalakshmi" System, as specified in Schedule "G".

3. A person to whom the Act applies shall have the choice of contributing to either the "Sahana", "Thilina", "Isuru", or "Sarana" System and a contributor who wishes to contribute to "Surakuma" or "Dhanalakshmi" can become a contributor to either one or both such Systems, depending on his choice and his ability to contribute. In the application submitted to join the Scheme as a contributor, the applicant shall be required to state the System of his choice to which he wishes to contribute.

4. The qualification for becoming a contributor to the Scheme by a person to whom this Act applies, shall be that he is not entitled to receive a pension nor is holding a pensionable post.

5. In addition to the qualifications referred to in regulation 4, a person who wishes to become a contributor to the “Sahana” or “Thilina” System, shall also be subject to the following conditions :-

- (a) ability to show an annual income of less than Rupees 36,000 to become a contributor to “Sahana” System or an annual income not exceeding Rupees 72,000 to become a contributor to “Thilina” System ;
- (b) not being presently employed in an employment which entitles the contributor to the payment of a provident fund benefit ; and
- (c) that the amount of income referred to in paragraph (a), should be certified by the Grama Niladhari and the Divisional Secretary of the relevant Division.

6. Every person who wishes to become enrolled as a contributor to the Scheme shall submit an application in such form as approved by the Board to the Authorized Officer, along with the contribution specified below :-

- (a) a person who wishes to become a contributor to the “Sahana” System shall, at the age specified in Column I of Schedule “A”, pay the quarterly instalment specified in the corresponding entry in Column II or the lump sum specified in the corresponding Column IV of that Schedule ;
- (b) a person who wishes to become a contributor to the “Thilina”, “Isuru” or “Sarana” System, shall at the age specified in Column I of Schedules “C”, “D” or “E”, pay the montly instalments specified in the corresponding entry in Column II or the lump sum payment specified in corresponding Column IV of that Schedule ; or
- (c) a person who wishes to become a contributor to the “Surakum” or “Dhanalakshmi” System shall in order to receive the monthly pension specified in Column II of Schedule “F” “G” or its multiples at the age specified in the corresponding Column I of those Schedules, pay the monthly instalment specified in Column III, the quarterly instalment specified in Column IV, the annual instalment specified in Column V, the annual instalment specified in Column VI, the annual instalment specified in Column VII, the annual instalment specified in Column VIII, the annual instalment specified in Column IX or the lump sum payment specified in Column X, or its multiples.

7. An individual or an institution may extend assistance to a person who becomes a contributor to the “Sahana” or “Thilina” Systems.

8. The Authorized Officer shall on receipt of an application to be enrolled as a member of the Scheme, ascertain the accuracy of the information submitted and with in thirty days of receiving such application, forward the same to the Board together with his recommendations and the contribution paid by the applicant.

9. (1) Where the Board grants its approval to an application of an applicant, the Board shall enrol him as a contributor to the Scheme. Where the Board decides to reject an application the Board shall inform the applicant of its decision and refund to the applicant the contribution paid by him.

(2) Where an applicant is enrolled as a contributor to the Scheme, the Board shall, in accordance with section 14 of the Act, issue to him a policy setting out the contributions to be made by him, the terms and conditions of the policy and the benefits to which he is entitled to under the policy.

10. (1) Every contributor who opts to pay monthly, quarterly or annual instalments shall pay such instalments on or before the due date stipulated in the policy issued to him. However, one month’s grace period shall be allowed for the payment of any monthly, quarterly or annual instalments, and where the payment is made after the expiry of such grace period, the contributor shall be liable to pay in addition to the instalment due, the accrued interest on such instalment which the Board has lost as a result.

(2) A contributor may make any number of instalments in advance and in such an instance be entitled to receive a rebate in accordance with the prevailing interest rates.

11. Where the instalments due are paid by a contributor within the grace period, no adjustments shall be made on the amount of pension payable to him. However, where the instalment and the interest referred to in paragraph (1) of regulation 10 is not paid after the expiry of its grace period, such instalment and interest due shall be deducted from the cumulative account balance and subject to the net cumulative account balance, pay the maximum pension payable under paragraph (2) of regulation 13.

12. (1) Where it is found that :-

- (a) any false or incorrect information is contained in the application submitted to be enrolled as a contributor or any material information has been suppressed ; or
- (b) the contributor has ceased to have the qualifications which enabled him to join the scheme, the policy issued to the contributor upon enrolment, may be cancelled.

(2) Where a policy issued to a contributor is cancelled under sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) -

- (a) if any net contribution has been made by the contributor such contribution together with an interest, calculated on the rate of interest earned by the Board as of then reduced by two points, shall be refunded ; or
- (b) the contributor may be enrolled as a new contributor, and where he is so enrolled, the net contribution made by him earlier may be set-off against the instalments payable by him as a new contributor.

(3) Where the Board cancels the policy of a contributor under paragraph (1), if at the time of the cancellation the contributor has paid more than twenty -five per centum of the instalments, the amount of net contribution shall be refunded to him.

13. (1) Where under regulation 6 a contributor has paid in full all monthly, quarterly or annual instalments or the lump sum payment, he shall, on the basis of the option on which such contributor joined the Scheme, be entitled to receive :

- (a) the monthly pension specified in column 'VI' of Schedule 'A', 'C', 'D' or 'E' as the case may be ; or
- (b) the monthly pension set out in Column II of Schedule "F" or "G", as the case may be, or a multiple thereof.

(2) Where a contributor has paid less than the total instalments payable but more than seventy - five per centum of the amount due in accordance with the requirements of the policy issued to by the Board, the contributor shall be entitled to receive a monthly pension in proportion to the contributions paid by him to the Board, with effect from the date on which the contributor becomes eligible to receive the pension.

(3) Where a contributor has in accordance with the requirements of the policy issued to him by the Board has paid more than twenty - five per centum but less than seventy - five per centum of the amount due, the contributor shall be entitled to receive at his request, the net contributions paid by him to the Board together with an interest calculated on the interest earned by the Board as of then, reduced by two points.

(4) Where a contributor has paid less than twenty - five per centum of the total number of instalments payable according to the requirements of the policy issued to him by the Board, and is unable to make any further payments, the contributions paid by him as of that time, shall be forfeited by the Board.

14. (1) Contributors to any System of the Scheme shall be entitled to a disablement benefit and a death gratuity without having to make any additional contributions.

(2) A person who becomes a contributor to “Isuru”, “Sarana”, “Surakuma” or “Dhanalakshmi” systems shall, where the contributor has paid the instalment due continuously and after the lapse of a specified period since becoming a contributor, be entitled to receive the cumulative account balance, together with any other additional benefits, taking into consideration the actuary evaluation of the Fund carried out from time to time.

15. There shall be two categories of disablement benefits as follows :

- (a) benefits on permanent partial disablement ; and
- (b) benefits on permanent total disablement.

16. Where as a result of an accident or sickness, a contributor suffers :

- (a) loss of both hands or permanent disablement of both hands ;
- (b) loss of both feet or permanent disablement of both feet ;
- (c) loss of sight on both eyes ;
- (d) loss or permanent disablement of one hand and loss or permanent disablement of one foot ;
- (e) loss of one hand or foot and loss of sight on one eye or permanent disablement of one foot or one hand and loss of sight on one eye ;
- (j) complete paralysis below the neck,

such contributor shall be deemed for the purpose of these regulations to suffer from permanent total disablement.

17. Where as a result of an accident or sickness, a contributor suffers :

- (a) loss of sight on one eye ;
- (b) loss of one hand or permanent disablement of one hand ;
- (c) loss of one foot or permanent disablement of one foot,

he shall be deemed for the purpose of these regulations to suffer from permanent partial disablement.

18. (1) Where a contributor who falls within either of the age groups specified in Column I of Schedule ‘B’ to these regulations, within the period specified in Column II thereof :

- (a) suffers permanent total disablement, he shall be entitled to receive the amount set out in Column III as corresponds to the entry in Column II as lump sum gratuity, or on the option of the contributor be entitled to receive the monthly pension set out in column VI of Schedule “A”, “C” “D” or “E” or the monthly pension set out in column II of Schedule “F” or “G” or its multiple. The amount paid as monthly pension shall be deemed to be the periodical allowance referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 8 ;
- (b) suffers permanent partial disablement, he shall be entitled to receive the amount set out in Column IV as corresponds to the entry in Column II as lump sum gratuity ; or
- (c) dies, his legal heir shall be entitled to receive the amount set out in Column V as corresponds to the entry in Column II, as lump sum gratuity.

(2) Where a contributor to either “Thilina”, “Isuru”, “Sarana”, “Surakuma” or “Dhanalakshmi” systems suffers permanent total disablement, permanent partial disablement or dies, in the payment of gratuity the contributor or contributor’s legal heir shall be entitled to receive the lump sum gratuity set out in Columns III, IV and V as corresponds to the entry in Column II of Schedule ‘B’ and the net contributions paid by the contributor together with interest thereon. However, in case of a permanent partial disablement, net contributions shall not be paid to the contributor, if he remains to receive the pension.

19. Where any incident referred to in regulations 16 and 17 takes place, the lump sum gratuity shall be paid to the contributor or his legal heir, as the case may be, once only. However, where a contributor after receiving the gratuity for partial disablement continues to remain in the Scheme as provided for in section II of the Act, and subsequently thereafter suffers total disablement prior to being entitled to receive pension, the contributor shall be paid the difference between the gratuity for total disablement payable up to the date of occurrence of total disablement and the gratuity paid for partial disablement.

20. Where a contributor or his legal heir is entitled to receive a lump sum gratuity for disablement or death, as the case may be, the contributor or his legal heir, as the case may be, shall report to the Board about the incident which gave rise to the entitlement to receive such gratuity, within twenty days of the date on which such incident took place.

21. (1) A contributor or his legal heir shall be entitled to a lump sum gratuity for disablement or death, as the case may be, only where the disablement or death occurs as a result of an accident within twelve months of the date of the issue of the policy.

(2) Where a contributor dies within twelve months of the date of issue of the policy due to natural causes, if more than fifty per centum of the number of instalments due to be paid by him have been paid by that time, the contributor’s legal heir shall be entitled to receive an ex-gratia payment of a sum not exceeding Rupees five thousand and the net contributions paid by the contributor.

22. Where a contributor becomes disabled as a result of attempting to commit suicide or due self inflicted injuries, he shall not be entitled to the lump sum gratuity payable under these regulations.

23. A lump sum shall not be paid under these regulations to a contributor or his legal heir for disablement or death caused to such contributor, as a result of –

- (a) declared or undeclared war, civil war, rebellion, revolution or anti-government insurrection, invasion, engaging in foreign hostile activities ;
- (b) the contributor travelling in any recognized air line or in any ship or other form of air travel, as a stowaway ;
- (c) any act of the contributor done whilst under the influence of liquor or drugs ; or
- (d) any law enforcement authority taking preventive measures against an unlawful activity.

24. (1) Where a contributor to the Scheme subsequent to receiving a pension, predeceases his spouse or the person nominated by him, but before reaching eighty years of age, the spouse or the person nominated by the contributor shall, if such spouse or such nominated person is not a contributor to any pension scheme, not in receipt of any pension or is not entitled to receive any pension, be entitled to receive the pension which would have been paid to the contributor until the date of on which he reaches eighty years of age if he is alive, or the date on which the spouse or the person nominated by the contributor dies, whichever date occurs first.

(2) Where the spouse or the person nominated as referred to in paragraph (1) is a contributor to any pension scheme or to is in receipt of any pension or is entitled to receive any pension, he shall be entitled to receive the balance of the net contributions paid by the contributor together with an interest calculated on a rate of interest, being the rate of interest earned for the Fund by the Board as of the date on which the pension is entitled to be received, reduced by two points.

(3) Where a contributor to the Scheme dies after receiving a pension but before completing eighty years of age and without nominating a successor, his legal heir shall be entitled to receive the balance of the net contribution together with interest calculated on a rate of interest, being the rate of interest earned for the Fund by the Board as of the date on which the pension is entitled to be received, reduced by two points.

(4) Where a contributor to the Scheme while receiving permanent total disablement allowance, dies before completing eighty years of age, his legal heir shall be entitled to receive the balance of the consolidated net contribution of the contributor and the total disablement gratuity.
