PART I : SECTION (I) — GENERAL

Government Notifications

THE ARMY ACT (CHAPTER 357)

D/RF/RECT/797AY.

REGULATION made by the President under Section 155 of the Army Act (Chapter 357) read with Section 29 of the said Act and with Article 44(2) of the Constitution of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka.

MAHINDA RAJAPAKSA,
President.

Colombo,
29th December, 2008.

REGULATION

The Army Pension and Gratuities Code, 1981 made under Section 155 of the Army Act and read with Section 29 of that Act and with Article 44(2) of the Constitution and published in Gazette Extraordinary No. 562/11 of June 15, 1989, as amended from time to time, is hereby further amended by the insertion of Regulation 3(2) (d), immediately after Regulation 3(2) (c) of that Regulation.

- “3(2)(d) (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (1) of regulation 3 above, the President may, retain in the same rank, the service of an officer presently holding the rank of Major General, by extending the services of the officer in, or by re-appointing him in, his substantive rank, at the time of his retirement, beyond the age of fifty-five years or beyond the period stipulated in respect of such rank, as set out in the aforesaid regulation, if in the opinion of the President, it is essential in the interest of the Army so to do.

- (2) The service of an officer may, at the discretion of the President, be retained in terms of paragraph (1), if the officer concerned holds an unblemished record of service and good conduct for a period of ten years immediately preceeding such extension or re-appointment; Provided however that the services of an officer should not be retained beyond a period of twelve months from his reaching the age of fifty-five years or exceeding a period of twelve months from the date of such extension or re-appointment, whichever is later.
- (3) Every officer whose services have been retained in terms of this regulation shall be placed in a Supernumerary Post and such post shall be deemed to be suppressed upon such officer ceasing to function in such post”.

The provisions of this regulation shall continue to be in force till 31st December, 2009.
