10th September, 2013.

COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT No. 17 OF 2013

Collective agreement entered into between Ceylon Oxygen Limited having its registered office at No. 50, Sri Pannananda Mawatha, Colombo 15, a company duly registered in Sri Lanka and The Jathika Sewaka Sangamaya a trade union duly registered in Sri Lanka and having its registered office at No. 416, Kotte Road, Pitakotte.

Whereas the Jathika Sewaka Sangamaya (hereinafter referred to as 'the Union') raised with Ceylon Oxygen Limited (hereinafter referred to as 'the Company') certain demands relating to the revision of terms and conditions of employment of their members employed in the Company and the said parties have, after negotiations, arrived at the following terms of settlement.

1. This Agreement shall cover and bind the Company, the Union and the members of the Union, who are in employment in the Company as at 01st January 2013 on permanent monthly contracts of employment in the categories of employment ranges as stipulated in Schedule 1, which is annexed hereto.

2. The salaries payable to the employees covered and bound by this Agreement with effect from 1st January 2013 shall be on the basis of the salary ranges stipulated in Schedule 2.

3. To ascertain the salary payable to an employee with effect from 1st January 2013 on the basis of the salary ranges provided in Schedule 2 hereto the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) The basic monthly salary as at 31.12.2012 of all employees in the above mentioned grades, covered and bound by this Agreement shall be increased by 12% and shall thereafter be placed on the corresponding salary ranges provided in Schedule 2 hereto.
- (b) With effect from 01st January 2014 the monthly salaries of all employees will be further revised by the addition of 12% to their salaries as at 31st December 2013, and shall thereafter be placed on the corresponding salary ranges provided in Schedule 2,
- (c) With effect from 01st January 2015 the monthly salaries of all employees will further be revised by the addition of 10% to their salaries as at 31st December 2014 and shall thereafter be placed on the corresponding salary ranges provided in Schedule 2.

4. The allowances and other benefits that were revised have been set out in Schedule 3.

5. The annual increment date of all the employees will be the 1st of April each year and shall be granted as per the current practice.

6. The Union and the workmen covered by this agreement, jointly and severally agree that they shall not, during the operation of this agreement, resort to trade union action of any sort on any matter that is covered by this agreement.

7. In the event that a dispute may arise in respect of any matter not covered by this agreement the union and the workmen covered by this agreement agree that such dispute will be settled / resolved in the manner provided below:

- (a) Whenever there is a dispute that is not covered by this agreement, a written statement of the dispute should be forwarded by the Union's Branch Committee to the Company, and at least two weeks given for the Company to resolve the dispute.
- (b) If no satisfactory solution is found, the matter should be referred to the Parent Union and to the Employers' Federation of Ceylon (EFC) for the purpose of attempting to resolve the dispute.
- (c) If after the discussion, the matter cannot be resolved by the intervention of the EFC and the Parent Union, the conciliatory proceedings under the Industrial Disputes Act shall be followed and parties shall endeavor to settle such dispute in accordance with the provisions of the industrial disputes act.

8. The provisions of this Agreement shall be effective from 1st Day of January 2013 and continue in force unless it is terminated by either party giving one month's notice in writing to the other, provided however that neither party shall give such notice to the other before the 30th November 2015 and the provisions of the Agreement shall not stand terminated until the 31st December 2015, in such event. In witness whereof the parties hereunder have set their hands on this 19th day of June Two Thousand and Thirteen.

AND

Food Beverages and Tobacco Industries Employees' Union a registered Trade Union having its office at 513 2/1, Elvitigala Mawatha, Colombo 05 (hereinafter referred to as the "Union") of the Second Part.

Witnesseth and it is hereby agreed between the parties as follows:

Title.— This Agreement shall be known and referred to as the Finlays Colombo PLC, Clerical, Supervisory and Allied Staff Collective Agreement of 2011.

This Collective Agreement made this 26th day of May Two Thousand Eleven pursuant to the Industrial Disputes Act between Finlays Colombo PLC, a Company duly registered under the provisions of the Companies Act and having its registered office at No. 186, Vauxhall Street, Colombo 02, (hereinafter referred to as "the Employer") of the One Part and Food Beverages and Tobacco Industries Employees Union, a trade union duly registered under the provisions of the Trade Unions Ordinance and having its registered office at No. 513 2/1, Elvitigala Mawatha, Colombo 05 (hereinafter referred to as "the Union") of the Other Part witnesseth and it is hereby agreed between the parties as follows:

Title.— This Agreement shall be known and referred to as Finlays Colombo PLC, Clerical, Supervisory and Allied Staff Collective Agreement of 2011 and will supersede all previous Collective Agreements signed between the company and the union or any other unions including "The clerical, Supervisory and allied staff collective agreement of 2004 signed with The Ceylon Mercantile, Industrial and General Workers Union (CMU) on 23rd of September 2004.

Part I

CONTAINING TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT AND MATTERS INCIDENTAL THERETO OR CONNECTED THEREWITH

1. Persons Covered and Bound.— This Agreement shall, subject as hereinafter provided, bind the Employer, the Union and all employees as set out in clause 2 below and who are members of the union.

2. Employees to be Covered and Bound:—

- (i) All Clerical, Supervisory and Allied Staff,

- (ii) Such Technical, Sales and Allied Staff as at the Twenty Third day of September Two Thousand and Four were covered by the Clerical, Supervisory and Allied Staff Collective Agreement No 36 of 2004 only to the extent that they were covered thereby, and
- (iii) Such Technical, Sales and Allied Staff in respect of those provisions of this Agreement and upon and subject to such other terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed between the parties after the date hereof who are members of the Union and who are employed by the Employer, save and except.
 - (a) staff holding executive or managerial positions,
 - or*
 - (b) staff employed in manual work who are not expressly covered by this Agreement.

3. Date of Operation and Duration.— This Agreement shall be effective as from the First day of January, Two Thousand Eleven and shall thereafter continue in force unless it is determined by either party giving one month's notice in writing to the other. Provided however that neither party hereto shall give such notice to the other party before the Thirtieth day of November, Two Thousand Thirteen. Provided further that in the event of a reduction in the par value of the Sri Lanka Rupee under any provision of law, either party shall be at liberty to abrogate this Agreement by giving one month's notice in writing to the other in terms of the Industrial Disputes Act.

4. General Terms and Conditions of Employment.—

- (i) The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall from the date hereof and during the continuance in force of this Agreement, be deemed to be included in all the contracts of service between the Employer bound by this Agreement and an Employee covered and bound by this Agreement, whether such contracts of service be written or oral, which are subsisting as at the date hereof or which come into being during the continuance in force of this Agreement.
- (ii) (a) The Union and its members who are employees covered and bound by this Agreement jointly and severally agree with the Employer that during the continuation in force of this Agreement, they will not seek to vary or add to all or any of the terms and conditions of the employment presently applicable to any of the employees covered by and bound by this Agreement, or all or any of the benefits presently enjoyed by any of the employees covered and bound by this Agreement other than by mutual agreement.
- (b) Subject to the terms of this Collective Agreement, the Employer agrees that it shall not seek to vary or add to all or any of the terms and conditions of employment presently applicable to any of the employees covered and bound by this Agreement, or all or any of the benefits presently enjoyed by and of the employees covered and bound by this Agreement other than by mutual agreement.
- (c) Any dispute or difference arising from negotiation under provisions of sub-clause (a) or (b) may be resolved by voluntary arbitration but only if all the parties concerned agree to submit such dispute or difference for settlement by voluntary arbitration.
- (iii) Where existing terms and conditions of employment of an Employee covered and bound by this Agreement are more favourable than the terms and conditions provided for in this Agreement then nothing in this Agreement shall in any way affect or prejudice such existing terms and conditions of employment and such terms and conditions of employment shall continue to exist notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein.
- (iv) Where an Employee was immediately prior to the date hereof entitled or becomes entitled on or after that date under or by virtue of any law or under any contract, agreement, award or custom to any rights or privileges more favourable than those to which he would be entitled under this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed or construed to authorise or permit the Employer to withhold, restrict or terminate such rights or privileges.

5. Hours of Work.— The normal working hours shall, during the continuance in force of this Agreement, be those hours which are customarily worked at a store, factory, mill or job in the establishment of the Employer.

6. Overtime.—

- (i) Any work which is performed in excess of normal working hours shall be remunerated at one and one half (1 1/2) times the normal hourly rate.
- (ii) Where it appears that in any establishment of an Employer and Employee on being asked to work overtime, other than on a weekly holiday, is likely to work overtime for a period of more than two (2) hours after the normal working hours, the Employee shall be entitled to an interval of not less than thirty (30) minutes at the end of such normal working hours before commencing overtime work.

7. Weekly Holidays.— Subject to Clause 10 Part I hereof the following provisions shall govern weekly holidays:

- (i) Subject to sub-clause (iii) hereof the weekly holidays prescribed by the Act shall be the weekly half holiday and the weekly full holiday as defined in Part III hereof.
- (ii) Work performed on not more than two such weekly holidays in any one calendar month may, at the instance of the Employer and with the consent of the Employee, be paid for in the manner set out hereunder and the Employee on being paid in the manner set out hereunder shall not be entitled to a half holiday or a full holiday as the case may be in lieu:
 - (a) For any work performed after the normal closing time up to 5.00 p.m. on the weekly half holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at double the normal hourly rate for each hour or proportionately for any fraction of an hour.
 - (b) For any work performed after 5.00 p.m. on the weekly half holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at treble the normal hourly rate for each hour or proportionately for any fraction of an hour.
 - (c) In addition to the remuneration payable under paragraph (a) above or paragraphs (a) and (b) above, the Employee shall be paid the equivalent of the Employee's salary for one half day.
 - (d) For any work performed under and up to four (4) hours before 1.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the overtime remuneration payable to the Employee shall be one thirtieth (1/30) of the Employee's monthly Salary.
 - (e) For any work performed under and up to four (4) hours and up to eight (8) hours before 5.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the overtime remuneration payable to the Employee shall be one thirtieth (1/30) of the Employee's monthly salary in respect of the excess hours.
 - (f) For any work performed in excess of eight (8) hours or continuing after 5.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at treble the normal hourly rate for each hour or proportionately for any fraction of an hour of such excess.
 - (g) In addition to the remuneration payable under paragraph (d), or paragraphs (d) and (e) or paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) above, the Employee's shall be paid the equivalent of the Employee's salary for one day.
- (iii) Where an Employee has performed work on not more than two weekly holidays in any one calendar month and has been paid for such work in the manner set out in the preceding sub-clause, then in respect of work performed on any further weekly holidays in the same calendar month the Employee shall be remunerated in the manner set out hereunder and shall be entitled to and allowed a half holiday and/or a full holiday in lieu of the weekly half holiday and/or the weekly full holiday as the case may be:-
 - (a) For any work performed after the normal closing time up to 5.00 p.m. on the weekly half holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at double the normal hourly rate for each hour or proportionately for any fraction of an hour.
 - (b) For any work performed after 5.00 p.m. on the weekly half holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at treble the normal hourly rate for each hour or proportionately for any fraction of an hour.
 - (c) For any work performed under and up to four (4) hours before 1.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at one thirtieth (1/30) of the Employee's monthly salary.
 - (d) For any work performed in excess of four (4) hours and up to eight (8) hours before 5.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at one thirtieth (1/30) of the employees monthly salary in respect of the excess hours.
 - (e) For any work performed in excess of eight (8) hours or continuing after 5.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at treble the normal hourly rate for each hour or proportionately for any fraction of an hour of such excess.

8. Casual Leave:— Leave for private business or for any other reason whatsoever, including ill-health if an Employee's entitlement of sick leave has been fully utilised, shall be allowed in accordance with the Employee's entitlement under the act up to a maximum of seven (7) days in each year of employment whereof not more than two (2) days at any one time shall be taken, save upon the grounds of ill-health.

Such leave shall be known as Casual Leave and shall be additional to all other holidays and leave provisions but an Employee shall not be entitled to take such Casual Leave preceding or following any period of Annual Leave. Casual Leave shall normally be granted on request without the Employee being required to state the reason for the request. Where the Employer finds it difficult to grant an application for Casual Leave, his difficulty shall be notified to the Employee as soon as possible after the application is made and in such case the Employee may be required to state the reason for the application in order that the Employer may decide whether or not it is reasonable in the circumstances to grant the leave.

9. Statutory and Customary Holidays.— Subject to Clause 10 of Part I hereof, the following provisions shall govern statutory and customary holidays:

(i) The following holidays shall be allowed each year as paid holidays:

New Year' Day
 Thai Pongal Festival Day
 Independence Day
 Sinhala and Tamil New Year (Two Days)
 Good Friday
 Holy Saturday (Half Day)
 May Day
 The Day following Wesak
 Prophet Mohammed's B'day
 Christmas Eve (Half Day)
 Christmas Day
 Boxing Day

(ii) (a) If any of the above days is a statutory holiday and if it falls on a weekly half holiday, an additional half day shall be granted on the working day immediately preceding it; and if it falls on a weekly full holiday, a substitute holiday shall be granted on a working day either in six (6) days preceding or in the six (6) days succeeding such weekly full holiday. No substitute holiday shall be allowable for any day specified above, which is not a statutory holiday, if such day falls on a weekly half holiday or weekly full holiday.

(b) If any of the above days is a statutory holiday and some other day not specified above is declared a statutory holiday in substitution for such day, then such day shall be treated as a normal working day.

(iii) Muslim Employees shall normally on application be granted leave on the day following the end of Ramazan and on the Hadji Festival Day; and Hindu Employees shall normally on application be granted leave on the Deepavali Festival Day; and such leave shall be set off against any paid leave entitlement or if all such paid leave entitlement for that year shall be exhausted, such leave may be granted as an un-paid holiday.

(iv) (a) Where the Employer requires an Employee to work during either of the half holidays set out in sub-clause (i) hereof (i.e. after the normal working hours for that day) the Employer shall pay the Employee either -

(i) on the basis set out in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Clause 7(ii) of Part I hereof and the Employee shall not be entitled to a half holiday in lieu

or

(ii) on the basis set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Clause 7(iii) of Part I hereof and the Employee shall be entitled to and allowed a half holiday in lieu.

(b) Where the Employer requires an Employee to work on any of the holidays set out in sub clause (i) hereof and provided that if such holiday is a statutory holiday the Commissioner of Labour has given his permission for the Employee to work on such holiday, the Employer shall pay the Employee either -

(i) on the basis set out in paragraphs (d), (e), (f) and (g) of Clause 7(ii) of Part I hereof and the Employee shall not be entitled to a holiday in lieu

or

(ii) on the basis set out in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) of Clause 7(iii) of Part I hereof and the Employee shall be entitled to and allowed a holiday in lieu.

(v) An employer may discuss with the Union the possibility of removing one or more of the customary holidays on terms which may be mutually agreed to by the parties.

10. Supervisory Staff.— The provisions of Clauses 7 and 9 of Part I hereof regarding weekly holidays and statutory and customary holidays shall not apply to Storekeepers, Assistant Storekeepers, Overseers, Foremen and other like or similar categories whose work involves the supervision of staff employed in manual work (hereinafter referred to as “supervisory staff”) but in respect of such supervisory staff the following provisions shall apply:

- (i) Weekly half holiday: For any work performed in excess of the normal working hours on the weekly half holiday, the Employees shall be remunerated at one and a half (1 1/2) times the normal hourly rate and such Employee shall not be entitled to any holiday in lieu for any overtime work so performed on a weekly half holiday.
- (ii) Weekly full holiday: For any work performed on the weekly full holiday the Employee shall be remunerated as follows:—
 - (a) (i) for any work performed under and up to four (4) hours before 1.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at one thirtieth (1/30) of the Employee’s monthly salary .
 - (ii) For any work performed in excess of four (4) hours and up to eight (8) hours before 5.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at one thirtieth (1/30) of the Employee’s monthly salary in respect of the excess hours.
 - (iii) In respect of any work performed in excess of eight (8) hours or continuing after 5.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at treble the normal hourly rate for each hour or proportionately for any fraction of an hour of such excess.
 - (iv) In addition to the remuneration payable under paragraph (i) above or paragraphs (i) and (ii) or paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above, the employee shall be paid the equivalent of the Employee’s salary for one (1) day.

Where any work is performed on the weekly full holiday and the Employee is remunerated in the manner set out above, the Employee shall be entitled to any holiday in lieu.

or

- (b) (i) for any work performed under and up to four (4) hours before 1.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at one thirtieth (1/30) of the Employee’s monthly salary.
- (ii) For any work performed in excess of four (4) hours and up to eight (8) hours before 5.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at one thirtieth (1/30) of the Employee’s monthly salary in respect of the excess hours.
- (iii) In respect of any work performed in excess of eight (8) hours or continuing after 5.00 p.m. on the weekly full holiday, the Employee shall be paid overtime remuneration at treble the normal hourly rate for each hour or proportionately for any fraction of an hour in respect of such excess.

Where any work is performed on the weekly full holiday and the Employee is remunerated in the manner set out above, the Employee shall in addition be entitled to and allowed a holiday in lieu.

- (iii) Statutory and Customary Holidays.— Supervisory staff shall be entitled to such Statutory and Customary Holidays as they have hitherto enjoyed prior to the coming into force of this Agreement notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement and for any work performed on such Statutory or Customary Holidays the Supervisory Staff shall continue to be remunerated in the manner in which they were remunerated prior to the coming into force of this Agreement notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement. Provided however that the Supervisory Staff shall have the same holidays as may from time to time be enjoyed by the staff employed in manual work supervised by such supervisory staff and that the total of such holidays shall not be less than the total of the Statutory and Customary Holidays enjoyed by the Supervisory Staff as at the date hereof.
- (iv) Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed in any way as bringing the Supervisory staff within the provisions of the Act.

11. Annual Holidays.— Annual holidays shall be as prescribed by the Act and an Employee may opt to set off absence due to ill health in excess of the entitlement provided under Clause 12 of Part I hereof against his annual leave entitlement.

12. Sick Leave.—

- (i) An Employee shall be entitled to not less than twenty one (21) days leave, exclusive of weekly or other holidays, in any one year in case of sickness, on full pay, subject to the conditions in sub-clause (ii) hereof.
- (ii) The Employer will be entitled to refuse to grant pay for any days of absence on grounds of sickness not supported by a certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner:

(a) where such period of absence exceeds two (2) days,

or

(b) where the number of days already allowed on full pay on grounds of sickness, uncertified by a Medical Practitioner, is in excess of ten (10) days in any one year and the Employer has reasonable cause for suspicion of the bona fides of the application of the Employee.

or

(c) where the absence of the Employee on grounds of sickness immediately follows or precedes any holiday allowed under Clauses 8, 9 and 11 of Part I hereof.

Provided further that any Employee who has abused the concession conferred by paragraph (a) above shall be liable to forfeit the same and the Employer may by agreement with the Union accordingly withdraw such concession.

- (iii) An Employee who takes less than twenty one (21) days sick leave in any one year as prescribed above shall be entitled to avail himself of the balance of his entitlement for such year in any succeeding year or years subject to the following provisions:—

- (a) In no case shall the entitlement to sick leave on full pay in any one year by reason of such accumulation of sick leave entitlement exceed ninety (90) days.
- (b) The accumulated sick leave which an Employee is entitled to take in terms of sub clause (iii) (a) hereof may be availed of on account of prolonged illness, hospitalisation, infectious disease or similar circumstances, but shall not be used for casual illness.
- (c) An Employee who avails himself of accumulated sick leave in any year shall support such absence with a certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner unless this requirement is waived by the Employer.
- (d) An Employee who is entitled to accumulated sick leave in terms of this sub clause iii(b) before utilising his 21 days sick leave in respect of the year in which he wished to avail himself of the sick leave, if he has not already utilised such 21 days leave.

13. Salaries.— The salaries of all employees who were in employment as at 1st January 2011 and continue to be in employment as at the date of signing of this Agreement shall be revised as follows:

- (i) A sum equivalent to 15% of the salary of an employee as at December 2010 shall be added to the salary with effect from 1st January, 2011.
- (ii) Thereafter, a sum of Rs. 850/- will be consolidated into the salary of the employee with effect from 1st January, 2011.
- (iii) A sum equivalent to 5% of the salary of an employee as at December 2011 shall be added to the salary of an employee with effect from 1st January 2012.
- (iv) Thereafter, a sum of Rs. 850/- will be consolidated to the salary of an employee with effect from 1st January, 2012.

- (v) A sum equivalent to 4% of the salary of an employee as at December 2012 shall be added to the salary of an employee with effect from 1st January, 2013.

- (vi) Thereafter a sum of Rs. 850/- will be consolidated into the salary of the employees with effect from 1st January, 2013.

In addition, as a matter of goodwill, an ex gratia payment equivalent to the amount mentioned in (i) above X8 will be paid to all employees, which will not attract any consequential benefits such as EPF, ETF, overtime, etc.

There will be no Cost of living payments either by way of NRCLG or consolidation of salaries during the pendency of this Agreement. Provided however, the employer shall make payment in terms of Clauses (ii), (iv) and (vi) above in lieu of such payments.

14. The salary ranges and increments applicable to the different categories of employees covered and bound by this Agreement will be as follows:

Minor Staff	-	Rs. 14,000/- to Rs. 26,000/-	Minimum increment of Rs. 200/- going up to Rs. 400/-
Grade 1	-	Rs. 14,250/- to Rs. 28,500/-	Minimum increment of Rs. 300/- going up to Rs. 600/-
Grade 2	-	Rs. 14,500/- to Rs. 30,000/-	Minimum increment of Rs. 350/- going up to Rs. 650/-
Higher Grade	-	Rs. 15,000/- to Rs. 32,000/-	Minimum increment of Rs. 425/- going up to Rs. 700/-
Special Grade	-	Rs. 15,500/- to Rs. 34,000/-	Minimum increment of Rs. 500/- going up to Rs. 800/-

15. Salaries for periods less than one month.— For the purpose of this Agreement salaries of any Employee for periods less than one month shall be computed in the manner following:

- For one hour - the salary for a month divided by two hundred and forty (240);
- For one day - the salary for a month divided by thirty (30);
- For one half day (either morning or afternoon) - a day's salary ascertained as above divided by two (2);
- For one week - a day's salary ascertained as above multiplied by seven (7).

16. Provident Fund.—

- The Employer and Employee shall contribute to the Provident Fund at rates prescribed by the Employees' Provident Fund Act. No. 15 of 1958.
- Subject to the provisions of the Employees's Trust Fund Act No. 46 of 1980, where the employer and an Employee as at the date hereof were contributing to a Provident Fund at rates more favourable than those prescribed by the Employees' Provident Fund Act, the more favourable rates of contribution will continue.

17. Bonus.—

- Without prejudice to existing bonus schemes, Employer will continue to pay exgratia to Employees bonuses which will not be less than the quantum of bonus payments paid to them in accordance with prevailing practice prior to the First Day of January, Two Thousand and Eleven. If the Employer finds it necessary, in his discretion, to reduce the quantum of bonus payments in respect of any year, the Branch Union in the establishment of the Employer concerned may canvass the question of the reduction with the Employer. If the Branch Union is not satisfied by the Employer in the matter, the Union may pursue the matter with the Federation. Thereupon, the Federation will consider the matter and advise the Employer in such manner as the Federation deems fit in the circumstances. If the Union is not satisfied in regard to the quantum of bonus payments finally decided by the Employer in the light of the advice given by the Federation, the Union will not pursue the matter further by any form of trade union action or otherwise during the pendency of this Agreement.
- Payment of bonus higher than the quantum of bonus payments in the past will be in the sole discretion of the Employer, and the payment of such higher bonus shall not be subject to any dispute.
- The provisions of sub clauses (i) and (ii) above will mutatis mutandis apply to existing bonus schemes.
- The Employer and the Union reserve the right to review the provisions of this clause in the event of profit sharing or Employee participation in profits becoming compulsory by virtue of any law. Any dispute arising there from shall be dealt with as provided in clause 26 (i) of Part 1 hereof.

18. Promotions.—

- The following shall be the principles which will guide the Employer on the question of promotion.
 - Mere length of service shall not be the sole criterion for promotion and the Employer shall be entitled to take into account other factors such as efficiency, educational qualifications and character. Where suitability is comparable, seniority shall be given preference.

- (b) An Employee in Grade I in the Clerical or Supervisory Staff will normally be promoted to Grade II after completing an year's service in Stage 7 unless his work is of a mechanical or routine nature not involving a degree of skill or responsibility or unless his inefficiency has been established after due inquiry as provided in Clause 23 of Part I hereof.
- (c) Promotion of Clerical and Supervisory Staff from Grade II to the Higher Grade will depend on vacancies and Employees who have shown the necessary capacity will be eligible for promotion to the Higher Grade.
- (d) Promotion of Clerical and Supervisory Staff to the Special Grade will be from the Higher Grade and will depend on merit.
- (ii) The number of Employees in the Higher or Special Grade of the Clerical and Supervisory Staff of any establishment will be determined having regard, inter alia to -
 - (a) the nature of the undertaking;
 - (b) the strength of the work force;
 - (c) the work involved in a post; and
 - (d) the merit of the Employees available for promotion.
- (iii) Where an Employee is promoted at the normal incremental date from one grade to another, such Employee shall be placed at a salary stage in the Higher Grade which will give such Employee a salary not less than that which he would have received had he remained in the grade from which he is promoted and had been advanced one stage in that grade. But where an Employee is promoted on a date other than the normal incremental date, such Employee shall be placed at a salary stage in the higher grade which will give him a salary not less than that which he would have received if he had remained in the grade from which he is promoted. Provided however, that if an Employee is standing at the end of a grade when he is promoted to the next grade, such Employee may be placed at any stage in the higher grade to which he is promoted which will give him a higher salary than the maximum salary in the grade from which he is promoted.

19. Transfers.—

- (i) Where it is a term of employment either express or implied that an Employee is liable to be transferred from one locality of an establishment to another, such Employee will not be entitled to any additional remuneration if, in consequence of a transfer from one locality to another, there is an increase in the number of hours of work.
- (ii) Where it is not a term of employment either express or implied that an Employee is liable to be transferred from one locality of an establishment to another, such Employee will be entitled to receive and the Employer shall be liable to pay additional remuneration in order to compensate for any increase in the number of hours of work arising from a transfer from one locality of an establishment to another. The amount of such additional remuneration, which will depend on the extent to which the hours of work have been increased, shall be mutually agreed upon between the Employer and Employee or the Union on his behalf. Provided however, that if the Employee is re-transferred to the locality in which he was previously employed and/or the hours of work previously worked by him are restored to such Employee, the additional remuneration granted to him shall be withdrawn with effect from the date of such re-transfer or restoration.
- (iii) Where it is not a term of employment either express or implied that an Employee is liable to be transferred from one locality of an establishment to another and the transfer of such an Employee will cause him substantial domestic disorganisation such as may arise in consequence of a transfer from one station to another such transfer shall be effected of mutual consent between the Employer and such Employee even if:
 - (a) such transfer will not involve a change in the number of hours of work, or
 - (b) he is offered additional remuneration in terms of sub-clause (ii) above.
- (iv) Nothing in the preceding sub-clauses of this Clause shall prejudice the right of an Employee to make representations to the Employer against any order of transfer. If the Employer requires an Employee to comply with an order of transfer notwithstanding such representations, the Employee shall comply with the order of transfer but without prejudice to the right of an Employee to make representations to the Employer against any order of transfer. If the Employer requires an Employee to comply with an order of transfer notwithstanding such representations, the Employee shall comply with the order of transfer but without prejudice to the right of the Employee or the Branch Union or the Union on his behalf to dispute such transfer with the Employer thereafter as provided in this Agreement.

- (v) If the Executive Committee of the Union considers that any order of transfer of an Employee by an Employer is calculated to threaten or undermine the existence or the legitimate activities of the Union or its members or is grossly unfair or seriously detrimental to the interests of the Union, the Union shall notify the Employer and the Federation thereof in writing and may, if in the opinion of the Executive Committee of the Union the circumstances so warrant, instruct the Employee to refrain from complying with the order of transfer pending settlement of the dispute as provided in this Agreement. If the Union instructs the Employee to refrain from complying with the order of transfer as aforesaid, the Union shall notify the Employer and the Federation thereof in writing and in that event the Employer shall be entitled to suspend the Employee immediately without pay. Provided however, that if the Employer subsequently agrees or if an Arbitrator holds that the order of transfer was not justified the Employee shall be entitled to his salary for the period of suspension. If on the other hand, an Arbitrator holds that the order of transfer was justified, the Employee shall comply with the order of transfer and he shall not be entitled to his salary for the period of suspension. The refusal of an Employee to comply with an order of transfer or instructions from the Union after the union notifying the Employer and the Federation as aforementioned shall not be deemed to be an act of insubordination by the Employee and the employee shall not be liable to disciplinary action by the Employer for such refusal.

20. Carrying out Employer's Instructions as to Duties:-

- (i) If an Employee considers that any duty which he is required to perform by the Employer does not fall within the scope of his employment under the Employer, the Employee shall be entitled to bring such matter to the notice of the Employer. If notwithstanding such notification the Employer requires the Employee to carry out such instructions, then the Employee shall be entitled to request the Employer to give him instructions in writing.
- (ii) If the Employer gives the Employee such instructions in writing, the Employee shall carry out the same but without prejudice to the right of the Employee or the Branch Union or the Union on his behalf to dispute such matter with the Employer thereafter as provided in this Agreement.
- (iii) If the Employer refuses to give such instructions in writing, the Employee shall be entitled to refuse to carry out such instructions and in that event the Employer shall have no right of action against the Employee.
- (iv) If the Employer gives such instructions in writing but the Employee fails to carry out the same, the Employer shall be entitled to suspend the Employee immediately without pay and to take disciplinary action against him without prejudice to the right of the Employee or the Branch Union or the Union on his behalf to dispute such suspension or such disciplinary action as may be taken against the Employee as provided in this Agreement.

21. Suspension:-

- (i) An employee may, subject as hereinafter provided, be suspended without pay by the Employer:-
- (a) pending an inquiry to be held by such Employer on a charge or charges of misconduct where such charge or charges relate to:
- (i) fraud, theft, misappropriation or a like offence by the Employee in the course of his employment;
- (ii) abuse, threat or gross insubordination by the Employee of or to a member of the executive or managerial staff of the Employer;
- (iii) a breach of peace or damage to property, or disturbance of the business of the Employer.

Provided however, that the Employer shall suspend an Employee under paragraph (iii) above only for so long as the Employee's continuance in employment will or is likely to be undesirable or to be prejudicial to the proper investigation of the charges or the Employer carrying on his business;

- (b) as a punishment for misconduct for a period not exceeding seven (7) working days, after due inquiry;
- (c) If an Employee refrains from complying with any order of transfer in terms of Clause 19 of Part 1 hereof or fails to carry out the Employer's written instructions in terms of Clause 20 of Part 1 hereof.
- (ii) At the time of suspension of within twenty four (24) hours thereof, the Employer shall provide the Employee with a written order or suspension specifying the reasons for such suspension.

- (iii) Nothing in the preceding sub-clause shall prejudice the right of an Employees or a Branch Union or the Union on his behalf to dispute an order of suspension thereafter as provided in this Agreement.

22. Probation.-

- (i) Every Employee recruited by the Employer shall serve a period of probation of not more than six (6) months. Provided however that if at the expiry of the six (6) months probationary period the Employer is not satisfied with the progress of such Employee, the probationary period may be extended for a further period of three (3) and in that event the Employer shall indicate to the Employee in writing the reasons why the probationary period has been further extended. During the period of probation or extended probation, the Employer shall have the right to terminate the services of the Employee without notice.

23. Disciplinary Action.- Where the Employer proposes to proceed against an Employee then-

- (i) Irrespective of whether an Employee has been suspended under Clause 21 (i) of Part 1 hereof or not, the Employee shall be furnished with a show cause notice which shall set out the particulars of the charges of misconduct alleged against such Employee and such show cause notice shall give the Employee not less than five (5) clear working days in which to give the answer or explanation to the charges preferred.
- (ii) Within five (5) clear working days after the date of the show cause notice, the Employee shall furnish in writing to the Employer the answer or explanation to the charges preferred against such Employee. Provided however, that if in the circumstances it is reasonable, the Employee may ask the Employer for an extension of time within which to furnish the written answer or explanation to the show cause notice and where such request is made by an Employee to the Employer, the Employer shall grant such request for such further period of time as is deemed necessary in the circumstances of the case.
- (iii) If the Employer is satisfied with the written answer or explanation of the Employee, the Employee shall, if he is under suspension, forthwith be reinstated and shall be paid all emoluments and entitlements due during the period of such suspension.
- (iv) If the Employer is not satisfied with the written answer or explanation of the Employee to the show cause notice and such answer or explanation is rejected by the Employer, the Employer shall commence an inquiry within fourteen (14) working days from the date of receipt by him of the written answer or explanation to the show cause notice.
- (v) After holding such inquiry the Employer shall notify the Employee of the findings on each of the charges in the show cause notice and the punishment, if any, imposed by the Employer. Provided that if an Employer fails to make an order, except for reasons beyond the control of the Employer, on the charges in the show cause notice within thirty (30) working days from the conclusion of the inquiry into such charges the Employee shall not be liable to be punished thereafter in respect of such charges and no inference adverse to the Employee in respect of such charges shall be drawn from such charges.
- (vi) If the Employee is under suspension and the Employer, after such inquiry, makes order that
- (a) The Employee shall not be dismissed, then the Employee shall resume Employment forthwith and shall, subject to Clause 21 (i)(b) hereof, be paid all emoluments and entitlements due during the period of suspension irrespective of such other punishment less than dismissal that may be imposed by the Employer on the findings as to the charges in the show cause notice.
- (b) The Employee shall be dismissed, the Employee's dismissal shall take effect as from the date of the Employee's suspension and accordingly the Employee shall not be paid for the period of such suspension.
- (c) In view of the serious or involved nature of the charges in the show cause notice against the Employee, the Employer is unable to make a final order as it is necessary and desirable that the matter be referred to the Police or other authorities for further investigations or inquiries and that the matter be therefore referred to the Police or other authorities or if in view of the serious or involved nature of the charges preferred against the Employee the matter had been previously referred to the Police or other authorities for investigations or inquiries that the outcome of such investigations or inquiries be awaited, then in either of such circumstances, the Employee may remain suspended without pay.

- (vii) If in any case where an Employee is suspended as provided for herein the Employer fails to make an order under paragraphs (a) to (c) of the preceding sub-clause for any reason other than that of the Employee's own seeking within thirty (30) working days from the date of the Employee's suspension, the Employee shall be entitled to half his normal remuneration for the period of thirty (30) working days from the date of such suspension and to his full remuneration for the period of suspension in excess of thirty (30) working days up to the date on which the Employer makes an order under paragraphs (a) and to (c) of the preceding sub-clause, irrespective of the outcome of the inquiry.
- (viii) In any case where an Employee is suspended as provided herein, the Employer shall make an order under paragraphs (a) to (c) of sub-clause (vi) hereof within ninety (90) days of the date of suspension of the Employee, unless he is prevented from so doing by reason of the Employee's own seeking or for reasons beyond the control of the Employer or it is agreed between the Federation and the Union that in the circumstances of the case the period of ninety (90) days be extended for such further time as may be agreed.
- (ix) The Employer shall not be required to hold an inquiry as referred to in sub-clause (iv) and (v) hereof where the Employer proposed to warn an Employee or where the Employee admits to the charge or charges. Provided however that if the Union disputes the warning or the punishment imposed on the Employee by the Employer and requests the holding of an inquiry the Employer shall comply with such request and the provisions relating to the holding of an inquiry shall then apply subject to the exception that the fact that the inquiry had not commenced within fourteen (14) working days after receipt of the Employee's explanation shall not be material or relevant.

24. Retirement.— An Employee has the option of retiring at the age of fifty five (55) years or at any time thereafter and shall retire on attaining the age of sixty (60) years. Provided however that if the Employer requires to retain the services of an Employee who has attained the age of sixty (60) years, the Employee shall be offered fresh employment on a temporary basis so long as the Employer requires the services of such Employee.

25. Trade Union action:—

- (i) The Union hereby undertakes in respect of all the terms and conditions of employment covered by this Agreement not to seek to vary or alter any such terms or conditions other than by negotiation during the currency of this Agreement and hereby expressly undertakes, subject to Clause 26(iv) (d) of Part I hereof, not to engage in a strike or other form of trade union action in respect of a dispute but will have such dispute settled in accordance with the procedure set out in Clause 26 of Part I hereof.
- (ii) In case the Union decides to call for a general stoppage of work by its members in establishment of the employer on any matter not covered by this Agreement, the Union will give written notice to the employer in whose establishment the work stoppage is to take place, and will give its reasons therefor. The Union will give at least one week's notice to the employer of the date of the stoppage, or even longer notice, between the date of the Union's decision to call for a general stoppage of work and the date fixed for the stoppage, in the circumstances in which such a stoppage may be decided upon. In such case, the Union will also instruct its Branch Union to exempt an agreed number of members from the work stoppage, in order to provide the employer on a written request made by the employer, with a skeleton staff, in order to maintain essential services.

26. Disputes Procedure.— Save and except any difference arising out of bonus which shall be dealt with as provided in Clause 17 of Part I hereof, it is hereby agreed that the procedure to be followed for the settlement of a dispute shall be as set out in sub-clause (i) or (ii) hereof.

- (i) (a) Where a dispute is between an employee and the employer, the employee shall, in the first instance, raise the matter through such employee's Branch Union with the employer and both parties shall endeavour to effect an amicable settlement. Provided, however, that if the exigencies of the circumstances warrant the Union acting immediately in accordance with the succeeding paragraph (b) it shall not be necessary for the employee. Branch Union to raise the matter as herein provided before the Union acts under the succeeding paragraph (b).
- (b) In the event of a dispute not being settled under paragraph (a) above, or in the case of a dispute between the branch Union and the employer, the Union may, if it so desires, raise the matter with the Federation and thereupon all steps shall be taken that may be reasonable by the Union and the Federation for an amicable settlement of the matter in dispute utilising if desired, the good offices of the conciliation Division of the Department of Labour.

- (c) In the event of a dispute not being resolved or settled under the preceding paragraphs (a) or (b), the parties shall agree a statement of the matters in dispute and such matter shall be referred to an Arbitrator or Arbitrators under section 3(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act for settlement by arbitration, or by mutual agreement decide on a reference to a qualified mediator or body of mediators, if and when it may be feasible. Provided however that should the parties fail to agree on a statement of the issue of the dispute for purposes of arbitration, each party shall furnish the Commissioner of Labour with a statement setting out the issues in dispute and thereafter the Commissioner of Labour shall set out the issues in dispute to be referred to the Arbitrator or Arbitrators.
- (ii) (a) The Union may notify the Federation in writing with a statement of the matter in dispute that such dispute should be dealt with under the subclause. As soon as possible after such notification by the Union to the Federation, a Special Disputes Committee of the Federation shall endeavour to settle the dispute. If no settlement is effected within seven (7) days from the date of the Union notifying the Federation, the dispute shall, as soon as possible, be referred to the Commissioner of Labour for settlement by arbitration as provided in subclause (i)(c) above, or if the Union or the Employer so requests, the dispute shall be referred immediately to a Special Arbitrator for settlement by arbitration.
- (b) If a dispute arising from the dismissal or discharge of an Employee by the Employer is referred to a Special Arbitrator as aforesaid and he is unable to make an award within twenty one (21) days of the date of receipt of the reference, the Special Arbitrator shall be competent, but not bound, either of his own motion or at the instance of the Union, to make an interim award after duly considering all the relevant facts and circumstances for his failure to make an award within twenty one (21) days of the date of reference, directing the Employer's to pay the Employee a sum not exceeding the equivalent of one half of the Employee's normal remuneration for the first thirty (30) days from the date of cessation of employment and for such period thereafter but not later than the date of the award on the reference a sum not exceeding the equivalent of the Employee's full remuneration. The parties shall be bound by and comply with the terms of any such interim award.
- (iii). Subject to subclause (iv) hereof, the procedure for the settlement of a dispute shall be as set out in subclause (i) hereof.
- (iv). The procedure for the settlement of a dispute in respect of the matters enumerated in the succeeding paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) shall, subject to the succeeding paragraph (d), be as set out in subclause (ii) (a) hereof.
- (a) A dispute in connection with the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement arising from an act of the Employer, which in the opinion of the Executive Committee of the Union is calculated to threaten or undermine the existence or the legitimate activities of the Union.
- (b) A dispute not connected with the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement arising from an act of the Employer which in the opinion of the Executive Committee of the Union is calculated to threaten or undermine the existence of the legitimate activities of the Union or its members or is grossly unfair or seriously detrimental to the interests of the Union or its members. Provided however that the disputes shall be referred to an Arbitrator or Arbitrators under the Industrial Disputes Act or to a Special Arbitrator as the case may be, if no settlement is effected within seven (7) days from the date of the Union notifying the Federation in terms of sub-clause (ii)(a) hereof, only if the Union so desire.
- (c) A dispute arising from the dismissal or discharge of an Employee by the Employer on disciplinary grounds, which dismissal or discharge is in the opinion of the Executive Committee of the Union vindictive or in bad faith and is calculated to threaten or undermine the existence or the legitimate activities of the Union. Provided however that the dispute shall be referred to an Arbitrator or Arbitrators under the Industrial Disputes Act or to a Special Arbitrator as the case may be, if no settlement is effected within seven (7) days from the date of the Union notifying the Federation in terms of sub-clause (ii) (a) hereof, only if the Union so desires.
- (d) If the Union does not, however, desire to refer a dispute for settlement by arbitration under the provisions of the preceding paragraphs (b) or (c), the Union reserves to itself the right to engage in or authorize a strike or other form of Trade Union action and the Employer reserves the right to take such steps as it may deem fit in the circumstances.

- (v) (a) In respect of a dispute arising between the parties hereto where arbitration is provided for under this Agreement, it is agreed that the parties to the dispute shall determine at the date thereof whether the dispute shall be settled by arbitration by one Arbitrator or three Arbitrators. Provided however that disputes arising over dismissals shall normally be referred to one Arbitrator and disputes arising over the proper interpretation or implementation of this Agreement if involving matters of principle or matters of general importance shall normally, if possible, be referred to a panel of not less than three Arbitrators.
- (b) For the purposes of this Agreement, an Arbitrator or Special Arbitrator shall be jointly selected by the parties. If the parties fail to agree on an Arbitrator or Special Arbitrator, he shall be selected by the Commissioner of Labour.
- (c) Where a dispute over a dismissal has been referred for settlement by arbitration under the provisions of this Agreement and the award contains a finding that the dismissal of the Employee by the Employer was not justified, then it is hereby agreed between the parties that normally in such a case the Arbitrator or Special Arbitrator shall order that the Employee shall be reinstated in his employment with the Employer and it is hereby further agreed that in any such arbitration the Arbitrator or the Special Arbitrator shall take note of this paragraph in making any such award.
- (d) A Special Arbitrator shall be competent, but not bound, to make order in his award as to the manner in which the costs of the arbitration excluding the legal expenses of either party shall be borne by the parties.
- (e) An award of an Arbitrator or Special Arbitrator made as herein provided shall be final and binding on the parties hereto.
- (f) (i) Where the Union seeks to settle a dispute by arbitration as provided for in this clause, such request for arbitration shall be communicated to the Federation within six months calculated from the date on which negotiations fail.
- (ii) Either party shall be entitled at any stage to inform the other that negotiations have failed.
- (iii) The Employer shall not be under any obligation to refer to arbitration any dispute where the request for arbitration is not made within the period of six months specified in this sub-clause.
- (g) (i) Where the Union seeks to settle a dispute relating to the termination of the services of an employee by arbitration as provided for in this clause, such termination should have been disputed by the Employee with the Employer, or by the Branch Union with the Employer, or by the Union with the Employer, or by the Union with the Employer within three (3) months of the date of termination
- (ii) The Employer shall not be under any obligation to refer to arbitration a dispute relating to the termination of the services of an Employee where it has not been disputed as aforementioned within the period of three (3) months from the date of termination of services.
- (iii) The date of termination for the purposes of this sub-clause shall be the date on which the written communication is sent to the Employee terminating his services and not the date on which the termination of services takes effect under Clause 23(vi)(b) hereof.

Part II

CONTAINING THE FACILITIES AND CONCESSIONS GRANTED BY THE EMPLOYER TO THE UNION

1. Domestic Inquiries.— If an Employee who is furnished with a show cause notice in terms of Clause 23 of Part I hereof is a member of the Union, the following provisions shall apply to the inquiry held by the Employer pursuant to such show cause notice—
- (a) The Employer will, subject as hereinafter provided, allow another member of the Union (hereinafter referred to as “an observer”) to be present as an observer without loss of salary for absence from work.
- (b) If the Employee who is served with a show cause notice desires an observer to be present at the enquiry to be held pursuant to such show cause notice, he shall forty eight (48) hours at least before the time appointed for the commencement of the inquiry Submit to the Employer the name of such observer.

- (c) An observer may answer any questions which the person who conducts the inquiry may ask him, but an observer shall not be entitled to represent the Employee who is served with a show cause notice or otherwise partake in the inquiry.
- (d) The person who conducts an inquiry shall be entitled to require an observer who obstructs such inquiry in any manner whatsoever to withdraw therefrom and an observer shall forthwith comply with such requirement.
- (e) The absence of an observer from the whole or any part of an inquiry for any reason whatsoever shall not vitiate such inquiry nor the proceedings thereto, nor the findings pursuant thereto.

2. Union Meetings:-

- (i) The following provisions shall apply to meetings of Branch Unions:
 - (a) In respect of each meeting which a Branch Union desires to hold at the Employer's premises, an application for permission shall be previously made to the Employer.

- (ii). The Employer will in his discretion grant leave to an Employee to attend a Trade Union course or seminar or conference either in Sri Lanka or abroad on no pay leave unless the Employee concerned is entitled to annual leave, customary or statutory holidays which he wishes to utilize for the purpose.

4. Check Off:

- (i) (a) In this clause "Employer" shall mean the Employer bound by this Agreement and in whose establishment the membership of the Union is not less than forty per centum (40%) of the persons employed by him in the categories covered and bound by this Agreement.
- (b) If, for the purpose of this sub-clause, it becomes necessary to decide the question whether in the establishment of the Employer bound by this Agreement the membership of the Union is not less than forty per centum (40%) of the persons employed by him in the categories covered by this Agreement, the same shall be determined by a referendum which shall be held by Department of Labour and the result of such referendum shall be binding on the parties hereto and the Employer.
- (ii). The Employer shall on the written request of an Employee deduct from the pay due to such Employee the current monthly Union dues as are specified by the Employee to be payable monthly by the Employee to the Union and remit the amount so deducted to the Union in accordance with the procedure and upon and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth.
- (iii). Every Employee who agrees to the deduction of Union dues from his pay shall sign a statement to the effect in the form set out in Form No. 1 in the fourth Schedule here to and hereinafter referred to as "an authorization".
- (iv). Every Employee shall be entitled to withdraw his agreement to checkoff at any time by signing a statement to that effect in the form set out in Form No. 2 in the Fourth Schedule hereto and hereinafter referred to as "a revocation".
- (v). No variation in the monthly deductions by way of check-off shall be made by the Employer except by mutual agreement with the Union and Employee concerned. In the event of any variation being agreed, each Employee will need to signify his agreement to the revised amount being deducted by way of check-off by signing a fresh authorizations to that effect in the form set out in Form No. 3 in the Fourth Schedule hereto.
- (vi). Entrance or readmission fees or special levies authorized by the Union's constitution or contributions to the Union's political fund shall not be deducted by way of check-off.
- (vii) (a) As far as practicable, deductions under an authorization shall commence from the pay due immediately after the date of receipt of such authorizations and shall continue thereafter until the authorization is cancelled by a revocation.
- (b) As far as practicable, deductions under an authorizations shall cease from the date of receipt of revocation cancelling such authorization. Provided however—that the Employer shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever to the union or the Employee concerned for failure to comply with paragraphs (a) or (b) above, that in his discretion, the Employer shall be entitled not to make deductions by way of check-off in any month if the deduction by way of check-off will together with all other deductions from an Employee's pay in that month exceed the deductions permitted by law.

- (viii) (a) The Employer shall once each month within fifteen (15) days after the regular pay day remit to the Treasurer of the Union the total sums deducted by way of check-off by a cheque drawn payable to "Food Beverages and Tobacco Industries Employees Union" and crossed Account Payee.
- (b) The cheque shall be sent, at the Union's risk, by post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the "The Treasurer, Food Beverages and Tobacco Industries Employees Union, No. 513 2/1, Elvitigala Mawatha, Colombo 5".
- (c) The Treasurer of the Union shall promptly acknowledge receipt of the cheque.
- (d) The Employer shall not be liable to pay to the Union or to the Treasurer on its behalf as aforesaid any sum other than the actual deductions made.

(ix) The Employer may suspend the operation of this clause as hereinafter provided by notice in writing to the Union.-

- (a) If the Union or a Branch Union resorts to a strike or any other form of trade union action in breach of the terms or provisions of Part I of this Agreement the Employer may suspend the operation of this clause for such time as may be decided by the Employer but not exceeding the duration of such strike or other form of trade union action. Before such a decision is made the Employer and the Union shall endeavour to effect an amicable settlement.
- (b) If the Union fails to maintain itself as a properly registered Trade Union under the Trade Unions Ordinance the Employer may decide to suspend the operation of this clause for such time as may be decided by the Employer.
- (c) If a decision is made by the Employer under paragraphs (a) or (b) above, the Employer shall be absolved of complying with the provisions of this clause in accordance with the tenor of such decision.

THE INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES ACT, CHAPTER 131

THE Collective Agreement entered into between Chas P Hayley & Company (Private) Limited, 400, Deans Road, Colombo 10 of the one part and the United Tea, Rubber & Local Produce Workers' Union, 513-2/1, Elvitigala Mawatha, Colombo 05 of the other part on 04th day of November, 2011 is hereby published in terms of Section 06 of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131, of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon (Revised Edition 1956).

V. B. P. K. WEERASINGHE,
Commissioner of Labour.

Department of Labour,
Labour Secretariat,
Colombo 05,
08th October, 2013.

Collective Agreement No. 41 of 2011

THIS COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT made this Fourth day of November Two Thousand and Eleven to take effect pursuant to the Industrial Disputes Act between

CHAS P HAYLEY & COMPANY (PRIVATE) LIMITED, having its registered office at 400, Deans Road, Colombo 10, (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer") of the one part

AND

THE UNITED TEA, RUBBER & LOCAL PRODUCE WORKERS' UNION, a registered Trade Union having its office at 513-2/1, Elvitigala Mawatha, Colombo 05 (hereinafter referred to as the "Union") of the second part

Witnesseth and it is hereby agreed between the parties as follows:

Title.—This Agreement shall be known and referred to as the Chas P. Hayley & Company (Private) Limited manual workers, Collective Agreement of 2011.

PART I

CONTAINING TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT AND MATTERS INCIDENTAL THERETO AND CONNECTED THEREWITH

1. Persons Covered and Bound.— This Agreement shall cover and bind the Employer, the Union and the members of the Union who are employed and who are working at Thurburn Stores, 205, Bandaranaike Place, Galle by the Employer in a manual or labouring capacity on monthly contracts of employment and for whom provision has been made in the wage scales set out in Schedule 1 of this Agreement.

2. Date of Operation and Duration.— This Agreement shall be effective as from the 01st day of January, Two Thousand and Eleven and shall thereafter continue in force unless it is determined by either party giving notice in terms of the Industrial Disputes Act in writing to the other subject to the following provisos:

- (a) That one party hereto shall not give such notice to the other party before 31st of December, 2013 and no notice given before that date shall be regarded as valid.
- (b) That in the event of a reduction in the par value of the Sri Lankan rupee under any provision of Law a party shall be at liberty to abrogate this agreement by giving one month's notice in writing to the other in terms of the Industrial Disputes Act.

3. General Terms and Conditions of Employment.— During the continuance in force of this Agreement the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be included in each contract of service between the Employer bound by this Agreement and an Employee covered and bound by this Agreement whether such contract of service be written or oral which was subsisting on the date hereof or which shall come in to being at any time after the date hereof during the continuance in force of this Agreement.

4. Probation.— Every Employee recruited by the Employer shall serve a period of probation of not more than six (6) months. Provided however, that if during the six (6) months probationary period the Employer is not satisfied with the progress of such Employee, the probationary period may be extended for a further period of three (3) months and in that event the Employer shall indicate to the Employee in writing the reasons why the probationary period has been extended. During the period of probation or extended probation the Employer shall have the right to terminate the Services of the Employee without notice. If the Employee's services are not terminated for unsatisfactory service during the period of probation or extended probation and the Employee has not been Confirmed by the Employer the Employee shall be deemed to be confirmed in his Employer's service with effect from the day after the day on which the period of probation or extended probation, as the case may be, ended.

5. Attendance.—

1. Unless otherwise specifically instructed by his Employer an Employee shall present himself for work on everyday (other than a holiday) at the usual starting time of the store, factory, mill or job and shall there remain available for work throughout the normal working hours.
2. If, at a store, factory, mill or job, work is temporarily not available for an Employee in his own occupation he shall be deemed to be ready and willing to perform work within the capacity and skill in any other occupation at any other work site of the Employer where work is available.
3. Irregular attendance or unpunctuality of an Employee shall constitute neglect of duty for which he shall be liable to appropriate disciplinary action.

6. Hours of Work.— The hours of work on a normal working day or on a shift shall be eight (8) and a period of six (6) hours on a short working day exclusive of intervals for meals/rest whether on shift or otherwise.

7. Forfeiture of Wages.— Unless for good cause shown to the satisfaction of the Employer and Employee fails to hold himself available for work throughout the normal working hours of each working day he shall forfeit and his Employer shall be entitled to deduct his wages for the period from the time at which such failure occurs until he is again available for work.

8. Overtime.—

1. If required by his Employer, an Employee shall work reasonable overtime which has been authorized by the Employer. Refusal to work reasonable overtime in the absence of a satisfactory explanation which is acceptable to the Employer shall constitute neglect of duty for which an Employee shall be liable to appropriate disciplinary action.
2. Overtime work (that is work performed in excess of normal working hours) shall be remunerated at one and one half (1 1/2) times the normal hourly rate ascertained in accordance with the provisions of clause 16(a) hereof.

9. Weekly Holiday and Saturdays.—

1. In respect of each week every Employee shall be allowed a paid holiday on a Sunday in that week as the weekly holiday provided however, that if an Employee has not worked for a period of at least twenty eight (28) hours, exclusive of any period of overtime work during that week, he shall be liable to forfeit and his Employer shall be entitled to deduct one day's wage in respect of the weekly holiday for that week computed in accordance with the provisions of clause 16(b) hereof.
2. In computing the period of twenty eight (28) hours referred to in sub-clause (1) the Employer shall include—
 - (a) Every holiday allowed by the Employer to Employee as annual holiday;
 - (b) Every public holiday granted by the Employer in terms of clause 11 hereof;
 - (c) Every day's absence on any ground approved by the Employer.
3. The Employer may employ any Employee on a weekly holiday subject to the following conditions:
 - (i) A day within the six days next succeeding such weekly holiday shall be allowed to that Employee as a holiday with remuneration. Provided however, that if any Employee who is employed on a weekly holiday is liable to forfeit and the Employer is entitled to deduct one day's wage in respect of that weekly holiday as provided in sub-clause (1) then and in such event that Employee shall forfeit and the Employer shall be entitled to deduct one day's wage computed in accordance with the provisions of clause 16(b) hereof in respect of the holiday which shall be allowed to that Employee within six (6) days of that weekly holiday. Provided further, that in respect of not more than two (2) such weekly holidays in any one calendar month the Employer may with the consent of the Employee—
 - (a) instead of allowing an alternate holiday within six (6) days of the weekly holiday in respect of which that Employee shall not be liable to forfeit and the Employer shall not be entitled to deduct one day's wage as aforesaid, pay him one day's wage computed in accordance with the provisions of clause 16(b) hereof in lieu of such alternate holiday, or,

- (b) in case that Employee is entitled to an alternate holiday within six (6) days of the weekly holiday as aforesaid in respect of which alternate holiday he shall be liable to forfeit and the Employer shall be entitled to deduct a day's wage as aforesaid, employ that Employee on the alternate holiday.
- (ii) that in respect of work done on such weekly holiday the Employee shall be paid as remuneration—
 - (a) one and one half (1 1/2) times the normal hourly rate ascertained in accordance with the provisions of clause 16(a) hereof for the number of hours worked during the first (9) hours (exclusive of one (1) hour for a meal); and
 - (b) at double the normal hourly rate ascertained in accordance with the provisions of clause 16(a) hereof for each subsequent hour of work.

The provisions of this Sub-clause shall not apply to employees engaged on work outside the business premises of the Employer for periods exceeding twelve (12) hours in respect of the duration of each such period.

10. Annual Holidays.— Annual Holidays shall be allowed to an Employee in accordance with the decisions of the relevant Wages Boards.

11. Public Holidays.—

- (1) Public holidays shall be allowed to an Employee in accordance with the decisions of the relevant Wages Boards. Provided however, that an Employee may be employed on a public holiday in accordance with the decision of the aforesaid Wages Board.
- (2) If any public holiday which an Employee is eligible to under the provisions of sub clause (1) falls on a weekly holiday, a day either in the six (6) days immediately preceding or in the six (6) days immediately succeeding such public holiday shall be granted to the Employee as a weekly holiday in accordance with the provisions of clause 9 hereof.
- (3) If any public holiday to which an Employee is eligible under the Provisions of sub clause (1) falls on a Saturday the number of hours constituting the normal working day on the day immediately preceding the Saturday shall be six (6) hours and no interval for a meal shall be granted.

12. Casual Leave.—

- (1) In respect of each year of employment during which any Employee has been continuously in employment that Employee shall be entitled to take on account of private business or other reasonable cause including ill health if that Employee's entitlement to sick leave has been fully utilized, leave (hereinafter referred to as 'Casual Leave') with remuneration for the period or an aggregate of periods not exceeding seven (7) days and the Employer shall allow such Casual Leave and shall be liable to pay such remuneration. Provided however, that not more than two (2) days Casual Leave shall be taken at any time save and except upon the ground of ill health. Provided further that any Employee shall not be entitled to take Casual Leave immediately preceding or immediately following any period of annual holidays. Provided further that in respect of any Employee's first year of employment including any period of probation he shall be entitled to Casual Leave for that year computed on the basis of one day for each complete period of two month's service.
- (2) Casual Leave will normally be granted on application without the Employee being required to state the reason for the application. Where an Employer finds it difficult to grant an application for Casual Leave his difficulty shall be notified to the Employee as soon as possible after the application is made and in such case the Employee may be required to state the reason for the application in order that the Employer may decide whether it is reasonable in the circumstances to grant him Casual Leave.

13. Sick Leave.— In any year an Employee shall be entitled to sick leave not exceeding twenty one (21) days provided that—

- (a) his illness is supported by a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner (unless waived by his Employer) and
- (b) the Employee shall not be on probation within the meaning of Clause 4 hereof. Provided however, that an Employee who has been on probation shall as from the date of confirmation in respect of the remainder of the first year of employment be entitled to Sick Leave not exceeding ten (10) days if he is confirmed after six (6) month's probation and Sick Leave not exceeding five (5) days if he is confirmed after nine (9) month's probation.

14. Monthly Consolidated Wages in Lieu of CCPI Consolidation.-

- (1) Subject to the provisions of Clause 15 hereof and the Employer's right to make deductions from wages in terms of the practices prevailing at the date of this Agreement and also subject to the existing practices in relation to the performance by Employees of work in other grades (whether in higher or lower grades), as from the First day of January Two Thousand and Eleven, each Employee shall be paid upon and subject to the other terms and conditions herein contained, a monthly consolidated wage on the basis of the scales of consolidated wages set out in the Schedule I hereto.

- (2) The scales of consolidated wages set out in Schedule 1 hereto include all Statutory Allowances as at the date of this Agreement.

- (3) The new incremental rates shall be as set out in the relevant scales in Schedule I hereto. This Agreement shall not have the effect of changing the incremental date of an Employee.

- (4) The wages of employees who are in employment as at the date of this Agreement will be revised as follows.

A sum of Rs. 1,000 would be consolidated to the wages payable to each employee with effect from First day of November Two thousand and Ten.

A sum of Rs. 750 would be consolidated to the wages payable to each employee with effect from First day of November Two thousand and Eleven.

A sum of Rs. 750 would be consolidated to the wages payable to each employee with effect from First day of November Two thousand and Twelve.

A sum of Rs. 750 would be consolidated to the wages payable to each employee with effect from First day of November Two thousand and Thirteen.

- (5) If during the continuance in force of this Agreement the Government of Sri Lanka.-

- (a) Prescribes increases in wages by any written law applicable to categories covered by this Agreement legally obliging the Employer to make such payment, the Employer shall pay such increases in wages prescribed by such written law and in terms of such written law;

- (b) recommends increases in wages such recommendations will not be applicable to the Employer, irrespective of whether or not such recommendations are applicable to categories covered by this Agreement.

15. Conversion to scales of Monthly Consolidated wages.-

- (a) For the purpose of ascertaining the wage which an Employee shall receive with effect from the the First day of January Two Thousand and Eleven on the basis of scales of consolidated wages set out in the Schedule I hereto the following provisions subject to the provisions of Clause 14 above shall apply.

- (i) All Employees shall be given an increase in wage of a sum equivalent to 17% of their wages as at 31 December, 2010.

- (ii) Each Employee shall thereafter be placed at the corresponding point on the wage scale in Schedule I without change in grade and if there is no corresponding point in terms of money value, the next higher stage on the same grade.

- (b) The wage increase referred to at Clause 15(a) (i) hereof is in consideration of the Agreement reached between the Union and the employer for higher output norms as per Schedule II attached hereto.

16. Wages for Periods less than one Month.- For the purpose of this Agreement the wages of any employee for periods less than one month shall be computed in the manner following:

- (a) For one hour - the monthly wage divided by two hundred and forty (240)
 (b) For one day - the monthly wage divided by thirty (30)
 (c) For one half day - a day's wage ascertained as above divided by two (2)
 (either morning or afternoon)
 (d) For one week - a day's wage ascertained as above multiplied by seven (7)

17. Annual Lump Sum Payment in Lieu of NRCOLG-

- (1) A lump sum payment on an ex-gratia basis would be made on the following basis
 - (i) A sum of Rs. 20,000/- payable in June 2011 for the period from 01st November, 2009 to 31st October, 2010
 - (ii) A sum of Rs. 20,000/- payable in November 2011 for the period from 01st November, 2010 to 31st October, 2011
 - (iii) A sum of Rs. 20,000/- payable in November 2012 for the period from 01st November, 2011 to 31st October, 2012
 - (iv) A sum of Rs. 20,000/- payable in November 2013 for the period from 01st November, 2012 to 31st October, 2013
- (2) No Provident Fund, Trust Fund, Overtime or any other payment shall be due or calculated on these ex-gratia payments.

18. Provident Fund.-

- (1) The Employer and an Employee shall contribute to the Provident fund at rates prescribed by the Employees' Provident Fund Act, No. 15 of 1958.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of the Employees' Trust Fund Act, No. 46 of 1980 where the Employer and Employee as at the date hereof were contributing to Provident Fund at rates more favourable than those prescribed by the Employee's Provident Fund Act, the more favourable rates of contribution will continue.

19. Terminal Benefits.- The Employer will pay terminal benefits to employees in accordance with the Gratuity Act, No. 12 of 1983.

20. Bonus.-

- (1) Without prejudice to existing bonus schemes and without prejudice to the Employer's claim that bonus payment in the past and as provided in this Agreement are ex-gratia, the Employer will, subject as hereinafter provided, continue to pay to each of his employees a bonus which will not be less than the sum of money paid to him as his bonus for the year immediately preceding the signing of the Agreement No. 20 of 1982. If in any year the Employer, in his discretion reduces the bonus to an amount less than the sum of money paid to each of his Employees as bonus for the year immediately preceding the signing of Agreement No. 20 of 1982 the Union may canvas such reduction of bonus with the Employer concerned. If the Union is not satisfied by the Employer in the matter, the Union may pursue this matter with the Employers Federation of Ceylon. If the dispute as to the reduction of bonus is not settled with the Federation, the same shall be referred to a committee of three (3) persons (hereinafter referred to as a 'Bonus Committee') which shall be constituted in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause 2 for settlement in the manner hereinafter set forth.
- (2) At the written request of the parties to the dispute as to the reduction of the bonus the Commissioner General of Labour will constitute a Bonus Committee which shall consist of three (3) Senior Accountants nominated by the Council of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka. The said Chartered Accountants shall be persons with at least ten (10) years' post qualification experience. The selection of the three Chartered Accountants will be communicated by the Institute of Chartered Accountants to the Commissioner General of Labour, the Employer, the Union and to the Federation. Thereupon the Commissioner General of Labour will communicate in writing to each member of the Bonus Committee so constituted a statement of principles and procedures by which the members of the Bonus Committee shall be bound in settling the dispute as to the reduction of Bonus.
- (3) Upon receipt of the submissions and the statement of the principles and procedures from the Commissioner General of Labour the Bonus Committee shall in accordance with the said principles and procedures decide whether the reduction of the bonus by the Employer was justified and if the reduction was not justified to what extent, if any, the bonus should be reduced. The Bonus Committee shall communicate its decision in writing to the Employer, the Union, the Federation and the Commissioner General of Labour. If the decision of the Bonus Committee is unanimous, such decision shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute and the Union and/or its members shall not pursue the matter further by any form of Trade Union action or otherwise during the continuance in force of this Agreement. If, however, the Bonus Committee is divided in its decision then the decision of the Commissioner General of Labour on the matter shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute and the Commissioner General's decision shall be communicated in writing to the Employer, the Union and the Federation and the Union or its members shall not pursue the matter further by any form of Trade Union action or otherwise during the continuance in force of this Agreement.

- (4) The Bonus Committee shall not be entitled nor be competent to decide that in any year the Employer should pay his Employees a bonus exceeding the sum of money paid as bonus as in the year immediately preceding the signing of Agreement No. 20 of 1982.
- (5) The fees payable to the members of the Bonus Committee shall be borne equally by the parties to the dispute as to the reduction of bonus and be payable on demand by the Commissioner General of Labour.
- (6) the payment of a bonus exceeding the sum of money paid as bonus to employees in the year immediately preceding the signing of Agreement No. 20 of 1982 shall be in the sole discretion of the Employer and shall not be called in question by the Union and / or its members nor shall the Employer's failure or refusal to pay such bonus be the subject of any dispute.
- (7) The provisions of sub-clauses (1) (2) (3) (4) (5) and (6) shall mutatis mutandis apply to existing bonus scheme.
- (8) At the request of the Commissioner General of Labour the council of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka will nominate three (3) chartered accountants with not less than ten (10) years of post qualification experience drawn from professional accountancy firms to serve on the Bonus Committee.

21. Annual Increments.— The annual increments provided in each grade of the scales of consolidated wages in Schedule One hereto shall be automatic, unless as a matter of punishment for general inefficiency including irregular attendance or unpunctuality or disciplinary action on account of serious misconduct an increment is suspended, stopped or deferred in which case where an increment is –

- (a) deferred, the loss of increment shall be continuous throughout the year;
- (b) stopped, the loss of increment shall only be for the period of stoppage during the year;
- (c) suspended, the increment is suspended pending a decision a defer or stop an increment, such decision being dependent upon a consideration of the factors giving rise to the suspension. Where on such decision an increment is neither stopped nor deferred, then the suspension shall be treated as waived and the full increment from the date of suspension thereof shall accrue to the employee concerned.

Deferment, stoppage or suspension of an increment shall only be effected in cases where the Employee has been notified, in writing of a complaint against such Employee and has been found guilty after due inquiry of inefficiency, fraud or misconduct which in the circumstances does not merit termination of employment.

22. Warnings.— If in the opinion of the Employer an offence warrants a warning the same shall be conveyed to the Employee, by a letter, a duplicate of which shall be signed by the Employer. If the Employee refuses to sign the duplicate the warning may be given to the Employee orally by the Employer in the presence of two witnesses.

23. Suspension:—

- (1). An employee may be suspended without pay by his Employer:
 - (a) Pending an inquiry to be held by the Employer on a charge or charges of misconduct which warrants dismissal;
 - (b) In order to avoid a breach of the peace or damage to the property or disturbance of business of the Employer;
 - (c) As a punishment for misconduct for a period not exceeding seven (7) working days after the inquiry;
- (2). At the time of suspension under sub-clause (1)(a) or within twenty four (24) hours thereof the Employer shall provide the Employee with a written order of suspension specifying the reasons for such suspension and thereafter, hold an inquiry into the charge or charges in terms of clause 24 herof.

24. Disciplinary Action:— Where the Employer proposes to proceed against an Employee then—

- (1). Irrespective of whether an Employee has been suspended under clause 23 hereof or not, the Employee shall be furnished with a show cause notice which shall set out the particulars of the charge or charges of misconduct alleged against such Employee and such show cause notice shall give the Employee not less than three (3) clear working days in which to give the answer or explanation to the charge or charges preferred.

- (2). Within three (3) clear working days after the date of the show cause notice, the Employee shall furnish in writing to the Employer the answer or explanation to the charges preferred against such Employee. Provided however that if in the circumstances it is reasonable, the Employee may ask the Employer for an extension of time within which to furnish a written answer or explanation to the show cause notice and where such request is made by the Employee to the Employer, the Employer shall grant such request for such further period of time as is deemed necessary in the circumstances of the case.
- (3). If the Employer is satisfied with the written answer or explanation of the Employee the Employee shall, if he is under suspension forthwith be reinstated and shall be paid all wages and entitlements due for the period of such suspension.
- (4). If the Employer is not satisfied with the written answer or explanation of the Employee to the show cause notice and such answer or explanation is rejected by the Employer, the Employer shall commence an inquiry within ten (10) working days from the date of receipt by him of the written answer or explanation to the show cause notice.
- (5). After holding such inquiry the Employer shall notify the Employee of the findings on each of the charges in the show cause notice and the punishment, if any, imposed by the Employer. Provided that if the Employer fails to make an order except for reasons beyond the control of the Employer on the charges in the show cause notice within thirty (30) working days from the conclusion of the inquiry into such charges, the Employee shall not be liable to be punished thereafter in respect of such charges and no inference adverse to the Employee in respect of such charges shall be drawn from such charges.
- (6). If the employee is under suspension and the Employer after such inquiry makes order that:-
 - (a) The employee shall not be dismissed then the Employee shall resume employment forthwith and shall subject to the provisions of sub-clause 23(1)(c) hereof be paid all wages and entitlements due for the period of suspension irrespective of such other punishment less than dismissal that may be imposed by the Employer on the findings as to the charges in the show cause notice;
 - (b) the employee shall be dismissed, the Employee's dismissal shall take effect from the date of the Employee's suspension and accordingly the Employee shall not be paid for the period of such suspension;
 - (c) In view of the serious or involved nature of the charges in the show cause notice against the Employee, the Employer is unable to make a final order as it is necessary and desirable that the matter be referred to the Police or other authorities for further investigations or inquiries and that the matter be therefore referred to the Police or other authorities or if in view of the serious or involved nature of the charges preferred against the Employee the matter had been previously referred to the Police or other authorities for investigations or inquiries that the outcome of such investigations or inquiries be awaited, then in either of such circumstances the employee may remain suspended without pay.
- (7). If in any case where an Employee is suspended as provided for herein the Employer fails to make order under paragraphs (a) to (c) of the preceding sub-clause for any reason other than that of the Employee's own seeking within thirty (30) working days from the date of the Employee's suspension, the Employee shall be entitled to half his normal remuneration for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of such suspension and to his full remuneration for the period of suspension in excess of thirty (30) days up to the date on which the Employer makes an order under paragraphs (a) to (c) of the preceding sub-clause, irrespective of the outcome of the inquiry.
- (8). In any case where an Employee is suspended as provided herein the Employer shall make an order under paragraphs (a) to (c) of sub-clause 6 within ninety (90) days of the date of suspension of the Employee unless he is prevented from so doing by reason of the Employee's own seeking or for reasons beyond the control of the Employer or it is agreed between the Employer and the Union that in the circumstances of the case the period of ninety (90) days be extended for such further time as may be agreed.
- (9). The Employer shall not be required to hold an inquiry as referred to in sub-clauses 4 and 5 hereof where the Employer proposes to warn the Employee or where the Employee admits to the charge or charges. Provided however, that if the Union disputes the warning or punishment imposed in the Employee by the Employer and requests the holding of an inquiry the Employer shall comply with such request and the provisions relating to the holding of an inquiry shall then apply subject to the exception that the fact that the inquiry had not commenced within ten (10) working days after the receipt of the Employee's explanation shall not be material or relevant.

25. Retirement.— On reaching the age of fifty five (55) years an Employee shall ipso facto retire and cease to be Employed by the Employer and there shall be no obligation on the Employer to give the Employee any notice of such retirement. Provided however, that an Employee who has retired may, in the discretion of the Employer, be employed after his retirement on a temporary basis on such terms as may be mutually agreed.

26. Termination of services.—

- (1) Every contract, whether oral or written, for the hire of any Employee by the Employer except for work usually performed by the day, or by the job, or by the journey, shall (subject to the provisions of clause 4 hereof or unless otherwise expressly stipulated) be deemed and taken in law to be a contract for hire and service for the period of one month and to be renewable from month to month and shall be deemed and taken in law to be so renewed, unless one month's previous notice be given by either party to the other of his intention to determine the same and such month has expired.
- (2) Where an Employee is engaged for a particular job or period such as casual or temporary work, he shall be informed thereof at the commencement of his employment and his contract of service will terminate on the completion of the job or period or the failure of the Employee to complete the job within reasonable time.

27. Union Recognition.— The Union shall be competent to make representations on behalf of any of its members who are employed in any workplace of the Employer bound by this Agreement. In regard to issues of general application or to the effect of principle such as matters affecting general terms and conditions of employment either in the workplace or the trade as a whole, the following provisions shall apply.

- (1) When the Union is representative of not less than forty per cent (40%) of the employees whose membership subscription is not in arrears, the employer of such employees will recognize the Union for the purpose of general claims and matters and negotiate with it on that basis. If there is any other Union which is also representative of not less than forty percent (40%) of such employees the Employer will be at liberty to require that general claims and matters be discussed and negotiated with the Union competent to make general demands by virtue of the requisite membership and not separately with each such Union.
- (2) When the Employer carries on more than one type of business or has more than one workplace and the claim or matter is restricted to one type of business or one workplace but is applicable or capable of being applicable to other Employees in the service of the Employer, the competence of the Union to make such claims or raise such matter shall be determined by reference to the duly qualified members of such union in proportion to the total number of Employees in the service of the Employer in Sri Lanka.

28. Disputes procedure.—

- (1) In the first instance the Union shall submit any demand on behalf of its members to the Employer of such members and give the Employer at least ten (10) working days time within which to reply. If in the Union's opinion the Employer's reply is unsatisfactory the Union and the Employer shall explore the possibility of reaching a settlement.
- (2) When the union concludes that negotiations with the Employer have been abortive it shall ask the Department of Labour to intervene and give the Department not less than ten (10) working days to arrange conference and/or discussions with a view to a settlement of the dispute. Negotiations under the aegis of the Department of Labour shall then proceed until the Department of Labour reports failure.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of clause 30 hereof all disputes between the Union and the Employer or between the parties hereto shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act and the regulations made thereunder.
- (4) Any party to this Agreement shall not instigate, support or engage in any unfair labour practice during the currency of this Agreement.

29. How anomalies in the course of implementing this agreement shall be dealt with.— Any anomaly arising from the implementation of this Agreement shall be settled by negotiation between the Employer and the Union and if the matter cannot be settled by negotiation, it shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act and the regulations made thereunder.

30. Trade Union Action.— The Union and the Employees jointly and severally agree with the Employer that during the continuance in force of this Agreement they shall not engage in any strike or other form of trade union action against the Employer, in respect of any dispute between the Union or the Employees and the Employer, whether or not such dispute is related to the Agreement, except where such dispute has been caused by an act of the Employer which in the opinion of the controlling body (by whatsoever name called) of the Union is mala fide or vindictive or calculated to threaten or undermine the existence or the legitimate activities of the Union and/or its members or is grossly unfair or seriously detrimental to the interest of the Union and/or its members. Provided however that at least seven (7) days notice in writing shall be given by the Union to the Employer, the Federation and the Commissioner General of Labour before the date of commencement of any intended strike or other form of trade union action consequent upon an act of the Employer which in the opinion of the controlling body (by whatsoever name called) of the Union is mala fide or vindictive or calculated to threaten or undermine the existence or the legitimate activities of the Union and/or its members is grossly unfair or seriously detrimental to the interest of the Union and/or its members.

31. Variation of terms and conditions of employment and benefits.—

- (1) The Union and the Employees jointly and Severally agree with the Employer that during the continuance in force of this Agreement they will not seek to vary, alter or add to all or any of the terms and conditions of employment presently applicable to any of the Employees covered and bound by this Agreement as amended or altered in terms of this Agreement, or all or any of the benefits presently enjoyed by any of the Employees covered and bound by this Agreement other than by mutual agreement.
- (2) The Employer agrees with the Union and the Employees that the Employer shall not seek to vary, alter or withdraw all or any of the benefits presently enjoyed by the Employees other than by mutual agreement.
- (3) Any dispute or difference arising from negotiation under the provision of sub-clauses 1 or 2 may be resolved by voluntary arbitration but only if all the parties, concerned agree to submit such dispute or difference for settlement by voluntary arbitration.

PART II

CONTAINING THE FACILITIES AND CONCESSIONS GRANTED BY THE EMPLOYER TO THE UNION

1. Breaches of Collective Agreement.— If in the opinion of the Employer and the Federation, the Union shall commit a breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, then and in any such event the Union shall cease to be entitled to enjoy the facilities and concessions granted by the Employer in the succeeding clauses of this Part and same shall stand withdrawn without prejudice to the Employer's right to restore such facilities and concessions upon such terms and conditions as the Employer may decide.

2. Domestic Inquiries.— If an employee who is furnished with a show cause notice in terms of Clause 24 is a member of the Union, the following provisions shall apply to the inquiry held by the Employer pursuant to such show cause notice –

- (a) The Employer will, subject as hereinafter provided, allow another member of the Union (hereinafter referred to as 'an Observer') to be present as an observer without loss of wages for absence from work.
- (b) If the Employer who is served with a show cause notice desires and 'Observer' to be present at the inquiry to be held pursuant to such show cause notice, he shall forty eight (48) hours at least before the time appointed for the commencement of the inquiry submit to the Employer the name of such Observer.
- (c) An Observer may answer any questions which the person who conducts the inquiry may ask him, but an Observer shall not be entitled to represent the Employee who is served with a show cause notice or otherwise partake in the inquiry.
- (d) The person who conducts an inquiry shall be entitled to require an Observer who obstructs such inquiry, in any manner whatsoever to withdraw therefrom and an Observer shall forthwith comply with such requirement.
- (e) The absence of an Observer from the whole or part of an inquiry for any reason whatsoever shall not vitiate such inquiry, nor the proceedings there at, nor the findings pursuant thereto.

3. Union Meetings.— The following provisions shall apply to meetings of the Union.—

- (a) In respect of each meeting which the Union desires to hold at the Employer's premises, an application for permission shall be previously made to the Employer.
- (b) If the Employer decides to grant permission, the Employer shall be entitled to impose inter-alia, one or more of the undernoted conditions.
 - (i) that no person other than an employee in the service of that Employer shall be present at a meeting of the Union;
 - (ii) on occasions such as the Annul general meeting of the Union, office bearers of the Parent Union may, with the previous approval of the Employer, attend;

(iii) fix a time limit within which a meeting of the Union shall be concluded or adjourned.

- (c). It shall be the duty of the Union and its office bearers to ensure that the terms on which permission to hold a meeting of the Union is granted are duly complied with.
- (d). It shall be the duty of the Union and its office bearers to ensure that no damage is caused in the course of the, or in connection with a meeting of the the Union to the Employer's property or any other person at the Employer's premises and the Union shall indemnify the Employer and keep the Employer indemnified against any such damage.

4. Duty Leave.—

- (1) The following provisions shall apply to duty leave –

Without prejudice to the right of the Employer, to refuse to grant permission if, in his discretion the exigencies of the circumstances warrant refusal, the Employer will generally grant permission for not less than two Office Bearers of the Union –

- (a) to be present at conferences held under the aegis of the Employer or the Employers' Federation of Ceylon or the Department of Labour in connection with a dispute between the Union and the Employer.

or

- (b) to attend inquiries before Industrial Courts, arbitrators or Labour Tribunals – without loss of wages for such absence.

- (2) The Employer will, in his discretion, grant leave without remuneration to an Employee to attend a Trade Union course or seminar or conference either in Sri Lanka or abroad unless the Employee concerned is entitled to annual or other holidays which he wishes to utilise for the purpose.

5. Check-off.—

- (1) The facility of check-off shall be granted, subject to Clause 1 of Part II hereof only so long as the Union represents no less than forty (40) percent of the Employees covered and bound by this Collective Agreement.
- (2) The Employer shall on the written request of an Employee deduct from the wages due to such Employees the current monthly Union dues as are specified by the Employee to be payable monthly by the Employee to the Union and remit the amount so deducted to the Union in accordance with the procedure and upon and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth.
- (3) Every Employee who agrees to the deduction of Union dues from his wages shall sign a statement to that effect in the form set out in Form No. 1 referred to as an 'Authorization'.
- (4) Every Employee shall be entitled to withdraw his agreement to check-off at any time by signing a statement to that effect in the form set out in Form No. 2 hereinafter referred to as a 'Revocation'.
- (5) As far as practicable deduction under an authorization shall commence from the wages due immediately after the date of receipt of such authorization and shall continue thereafter until the authorization is cancelled by a revocation.
- (6) As far as practicable deductions under an authorization shall cease from the date of receipt of a revocation cancelling such authorization. Provided however –
- (a) that the Employer shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever to the Union or the Employee concerned for failure to comply with sub-clauses 5 or 6;
- (b) that at his discretion the Employer shall be entitled not to make deductions by way of check-off in any month in which the deductions from the Employee's wages in that month exceed the deduction permitted by Law;
- (7) The Employer shall not later than the tenth (10th) day of each month remit the Union dues deducted from the wages of the Employees in the month immediately preceding, to the Treasurer of the Union in accordance with the tenor of each authorization by a cheque payable to the Treasurer thereof and crossed 'Account Payee'.

- (8) The cheque shall be sent at the risk of the Union and the Employees concerned by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the Treasurer of the Union at its address for the time being.
- (9) The Treasurer of the Union shall promptly acknowledge receipt of the cheque.
- (10) The Employer shall not be liable to pay to the Union or the Treasurer on its behalf as aforesaid any sum other than the Union's dues actually deducted.
